It's a strange world

Boy the world is a strange place! Here we have Karla Homolka, who is a convicted killer who received 12 years for manslaughter in the deaths of Kristen Krench and Leslie Mahaffy.

This lovely person has a room in the Kingston Penitentiary for Women with her own personalized Mickey Mouse wallpaper, a colour TV and a microwave oven — no doubt in case she feels like a midnight snack!

I often wonder how the parents of Kristen and Leslie feel about paying for the comforts of this cold-blooded murderer. As a taxpayer in this country, I know I don't like it one bit. It stinks!

To add insult to injury, we all paid for the legal defence of Homolka. It's madness!

Next week's topic: Mike Keenan of the Blues.
