PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

PHIL McINTYRE

Phil, a forward for the Bantam 1 Firefighters club scored three goals to go with six assists in three games last week and was subsequently named a Player of the Week. A Grade 10 student at Acton High, Phil also enjoys basketball, volleyball soccer and refereeing Saturday mornings.

CHRIS SCHILLER

Atom 2 Proplastex goalie Chris Schiller has been named Player of the Week after notching six shutouts in 13 games this year. In his second year of Acton rep hockey, the 10-year-old M.Z. Bennett student likes baseball, computers, music and movies when not playing hockey.

MIDGET

Hat-trick performances by Matt Boycott, Steve Forbes and Jon Routledge helped the Acton Precision Millwrights Midget Sabres tighten their grip atop the Tri-County, Harrison Division standings with a 10-1 drubbing of winless Grand Valley on Thursday in Grand Valley.

The visitors opened up a 3-0 first-period lead, increasing the margin to 6-1 after two periods before busting for four in the third to make it a laugher.

Steve White rounded out the 10-0-2 Sabres' scoring on the road.

Setting up three goals each were Boycott, Chris Williams, Geoff Heinz, Steve White and Josh Marcoux. Trevor Malloy had two helpers, while Routledge, Forbes and Dwayne Rhynold collected one each.

Meanwhile, the Midgets entered their first tournament on the weekend in Durham and came home after a slim 4-3 overtime loss to the hosts. They were also blanked 2-0 by Mount Forest.

Forbes registered two goals to lead Acton against Durham, while Heinz recorded the other.

Jason Pembleton was in on every goal with three assists. Heinz racked up a pair, while Forbes picked up one helper.

PEEWEE 1

The Galvcast Peewee Sabres are running away with their division after two lopsided wins last week upped their record to 14-1.

On Thursday, Mark Forbes found the net three times for the Sabres in a 10-2 thumping in Arthur. Shawn Weatherall, Marcel Dube adding two goals, while Kyle Artem, Greg Barends and Jason King chipped in with singles.

Assists were awarded to Dube, Weatherall and Paul Withers with two. Forbes, Artem, Barends, Matt Schrock, Thomas Wolfer and Mike Hills netted one each.

Weatherall's three goals paced the attack in a 9-2 debacle against Orangeville here last Wednesday.

Rounding out the scoring were Artem with two, Forbes, Dube, Withers and Scott Monaghan.

Meanwhile, a 3-2 loss on Sunday to the hosts at a tourney in Ingersoll was only the second setback the locals have suffered in 18 games this season.

Jason Christopher and Joey Field potted Sabres goals.

Drawing assists were Weatherall, Barends and Chris Lee.

In Saturday's late game, Lee scored the game-winner in OT from Forbes in Acton's 2-1 win over Port Elgin.

Forbes scored the first goal, set up by Jeff Newman.

To open the tourney, Acton dominated Oakville from the outset en route to an 8-2 victory.

Hills and Weatherall scored twice. Withers, Newman, Artem and King had one each.

Artem topped the assist parade with two. Singles were credited to Barends, Schrock, Withers, Forbes, Weatherall and Hills.

PEEWEE 2

The URW Local 603 Sabres didn't have games scheduled last week.

BANTAM 1

The Bantam Firefighter Sabres are showing signs of coming out of a slump, which had seen them drop four of their last five games before last week's 2-0-1 showing.

On Friday, the Sabres were down 1-0 with a minute, 22 seconds left in a game in Elora when the latter squad was penalized.

Acton then knotted the game eight seconds later on Jon Routledge power-play marker. And with 14 ticks left on the clock, Phil McIntyre notched the winner from Routledge and Mark Faseruk.

Faseruk and Phil McIntyre set up the Routledge goal.

Last Tuesday, Routledge scored the game-winning goal as the locals trimmed Orangeville 4-3 at the Community Centre.

The McIntyres, Brian with two and Derrick, also scored.

Phil McIntyre counted three assists. Routledge had two, while Brian McIntyre, Chris Yeatman and Adam Petch had one apiece.

Powered by Routledge's hat-trick, the locals tied Oakville 6-6 in Oakville last Monday.

Phil McIntyre with a pair and Brian McIntyre, added the others.

Faseruk and Phil McIntyre posted two helpers. Others went to Brian McIntyre, Matt Williams, Ryan Valente, Derrick McIntyre, Bob Brooks and Sean Durkin.

BANTAM 2

Scott McDonald and Joel Lucier each scored and set up each other's goals as the United Aggregate Local 488 Sabres fell 5-2 in Erin on Thursday.

The locals begin a stretch of three games in four nights starting tonight (Wednesday) in Elora. The Sabres are in Milton tomorrow and complete the home-and-home set at the Community Centre on Saturday.
