PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

TREVOR MALLOY

A 16-year-old Acton High student, Trevor has been named Player of the Week after racking up five goals and four assists in two games for the Midgets. When not on the ice, the right-winger likes to play volleyball and other sports, along with listening to music and dancing.

ANDREW ROBITAILLE

Andrew, a Silvercreek resident and centre with the Andy's Restaurant Novice 2 Sabres, is Player of the Week because of his four goal, two assist showing in two recent games. The Grade 3 Harrison Public School student collects cards and coins and also enjoys playing soccer.

MIDGET

After suffering their first loss last Tuesday — 9-0 in Fergus — the Acton Precision Millwrights Midgets crushed Grand Valley 8-2 on the road on Saturday.

Jason Pembleton and Trevor Malloy put Acton up 2-0 after one period before the visitors made it a 6-2 game heading to the third.

Also scoring were Malloy with two, Josh Marcoux, Gary Genzler, Chris Williams and Scott McIntyre.

Adam DaPonte topped the local Midgets with three assists, while Genzler, Pembleton and Matt Boycott had two apiece. Singles went to Williams, McIntyre, Dave Newell and Steve White.

Last Monday, Malloy and Newell bulged the net twice in the Precision Midgets' 8-1 whalloping of Chinguacousy at the Community Centre.

The locals held period leads of 3-1 and 6-1.

Also scoring were Boycott, White, Marcoux and Beppy Toscan.

Jon Routledge headed the assist department, setting up five goals. Malloy contributed four helpers, while Newell added a pair. Toscan, Boycott, Marcoux and Scott Glass had one assist each.

The Midgets hosted Elora on Monday night.

PEEWEE 1

Missing three players due to suspensions played a big part in the Galvcast Sabres' inability to post at least one win over a week.

On Saturday with almost all players in the lineup, Craig Foster yielded five goals against Oakville in a 5-3 loss at the Glen Abbey arena in Oakville.

Greg Barends, Mike Hills and Jeff Newman scored for Galvcast.

Chalking up assists were Hills, Barends, Joey Field, Jason King, Mark Forbes and Paul Withers.

Last Wednesday, Thomas Wolfer had troubles in the Acton net as Arthur doubled the Sabres 6-3 at the Community Centre.

Barends, King and Marcel Dube pulled the trigger with single goals.

Barends set up two goals. Single helpers went to Withers, Forbes, Chris Lee and Matt Schrock.

PEEWEE 2

After spotting Milton a 5-0 lead due to defensive lapses and untimely errors, the URW Local 603 Sabres chipped away at the Community Centre on Sunday, but came up short in a 5-3 final.

David Iacocca with two and Reuben Rivers scored Sabre goals.

Assists were given to Graham Gaeger, Adam Bosch, Dan Stanhope, Stephen Monaghan and Matt Bodin.

Last Wednesday, goaler Rory Dick made outstanding saves to preserve a 1-1 Sabre tie against Grand Valley on the road.

Iacocca, who was assisted by Ryan Young and Ronny McCaslin, had the lone local marker.

The Sabres came out flat last Tuesday in Erin, falling 3-1.

Erin was up 2-1 before depositing an empty-netter in the last 30 seconds.

Matt Bodin had the unassisted Sabres goal.

BANTAM 1

In their lone league game of the week, the Bantam Firefighter Sabres were blanked 2-0 by Arthur.

On Sunday, the Firefighters participated in the Osprey tournament at the Feversham arena.

They opened the day against the Chinguacousy Maple Leafs.

Tied 2-2, Brian McIntyre fired the winning goal with one minute, 26 seconds left in the game.

Phil McIntyre and Jon Routledge drew the assists.

Derrick McIntyre scored an early first-period goal to give the locals a lead. After Ching scored twice to make it 2-1, Firefighter Sean Durkin, assisted by Chris Yeatman, knotted the score.

In Game 2, Phil and Derrick McIntyre scored quickly off Brian McIntyre passes against Wasaga Beach.

However, Wasaga Beach scored twice to even the contest and with less than two minutes remaining in the third period, took the lead to stay.

BANTAM 2

Scott MacDonald assisted on all four of the United Aggregate Local 488 Sabres' goals last week, resulting in a 1-2 record.

On Saturday at the Community Centre, the Sabres put forth a lacklustre effort in losing 5-1 to Milton.

Nathan Irving scored the lone goal from MacDonald and Mike Palmer.

MacDonald had two assists and Palmer a goal and assist in a 3-2 loss in Milton.

Adam King also scored, while Brent McGuire notched the other assist.

King pocketed the only goal in the Sabres' 1-0 win in Elora last Wednesday.

MacDonald and Palmer set up the play.
