

Play stars young actors

Some 40 young actors will be on stage next Sunday and Monday as the Evangel Pentecostal church stages the Christmas play "Hark, the Herald Angel."

Show times are Sunday night at 6:30 and Monday at 7:30 pm. The church is located at 35 Churchill Rd. N. and the entire community is invited to attend.

"Hark" is a children's musical drama about the adventures of an angel named Hark. There is no admission charge.

BEST WISHES FOR A HAPPY HOLIDAY SEASON!

AWESOME FOURSOME! Blue Springs Golf Club members held their fourth annual Jack Frost Tournament last Sunday and 23 golfers helped raise $535 for Acton FoodShare. The winning foursome was, from left, Vince Cianfagna, Tom Bates, Lucie Huether and Ken Keates. After the tourney Keates remarked that "everyone was pleased to attend and contribute to a worthy cause. Hopefully it will make for a few more smiles this Christmas."

Ladies help with holiday hampers

LAKESIDE CHAPTER IODE

BY DOT NORTON

First, let me send seasons greetings to everyone. A very Merry Christmas to all and a Happy New Year.

To start with, some of our ladies did get together for a Christmas dinner. They certainly looked like it was a good one at the Red Dog Café

Not too many out for our last meeting of the year, but 12 ladies did turn up. One out-of-town member we were glad to see was Mrs.

Eileen Currie from Guelph. It's nice to greet old friends at this time of the year.

We will be working with the Salvation Army and other clubs doing the Christmas hampers. We start at 2 pm on Dec. 21, sorting and packing boxes. Delivery is for the next day, the 22nd.

Thank you ladies in advance for lending a hand. Our social lady, Joyce Sprowl, always does a great job on this project — a special thanks to her.

Mark the 21st on your calendars if you volunteered.

Not much business at this time other than a letter from National. This tells us that all monies we make must be used for projects to help others such as Shoes for the North, Snack Pack, and many others.

Special thanks to all who came to the bazaar on Nov. 12. We hope you found some Christmas gifts and enjoyed tea with us.

Our next meeting will be Jan. 3 at Knox Church. Come out and see what we try to do.

The meeting starts at 7:30 pm and is open to one and all.
