Redmen Junior girls sweep Wildcats

BY DOUG HARRISON

The Acton Tanner

Communication was the difference in the Junior Redmen girls' volleyball team dropping two of three games to Blakelock to open the season and sweeping White Oaks two days later.

Playing their first game together, the Redmen were nervous in front of their home crowd and tentative play proved fatal in a 2-1 setback to the Blakelock Tigers in a Halton high school Volpe Division matchup last Monday.

However, this year's aggressive local Junior outfit showed its true colours last Wednesday, controlling the ball all three games in blanking the White Oaks Wildcats 15-13, 15-6, 16-14 in Oakville.

"We knew we had the stronger hitting and serving team and used it to our own advantage. (White Oaks) had more difficulty with pass reception, so we just knew to power them," Redmen coach Stephanie Budak said the other day.

"We were also able to come back at the right time. We were down 9-0 in one game, but a little slump didn't hurt us."

Budak said her players still have to work on communication and positioning on the court.

The players, she says, will have to develop that as they become familiar with each other.

"We're going to work on hitting. We don't want to be a defensive team. We want to be aggressive," Budak insisted.

"We have a lot of talent. I'm hopeful for the season and believe that we'll get better."

I did like Ridley trade

Yes, folks, I still say the Leafs made a big mistake trading captain Wendel Clark. And I have a few more things to say on the matter.

It's sad to see a fan favourite like him traded. I feel they have ripped the heart and soul out of the team. Another reason I did not like the trade is they let Sylvain Lefebvre, a stay-at-home defenceman, and steady-as-a-rock Bob Rouse go too. Worst of all, a real tough, banging kid with good hands was let go in the trade. His name is Landon Wilson. Remember that name.

I like the trade for Ridley, a centre from Washington, for Rob Pearson. Ridley got 24 goals, is a good penalty killer, and he would have been their second centre. Now that they have three pretty good centres, Gilmour won't get the ice time he craves — and remember when he didn't get his ice time in Calgary? Dougie is one of those guys who must get a lot of ice time to feel good.

I am going out on a limb, and I hope I'm wrong, but I say the Leafs will have a tough time in the playoffs, whenever they call off the NHL lockout.

Talk to you again next week!
