PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

ADAM PETCH

A forward with the United Aggregate Local 488 Bantam 2 Sabres, Adam was named Player of the Week after posting three goals and two assists in games against Elora (9-6 loss) and Milton (3-3 tie) last week. The 15-year-old Acton High student also enjoys baseball.

MARC FORBES

Marc, a right winger for the Acton Galvcast Pee wee 1 Sabres, has been named Player of the Week for his performance as a two-way player. A student at St. John's school in Guelph, Marc also likes coaching junior basketball while playing senior basketball, volleyball and baseball.

MIDGET

Although they suffered their second loss of the season against 16 victories, the Acton Precision Millwrights Midgets also managed a victory last week to maintain a 13-point lead on second-place Fergus.

The locals were doubled 6-3 by Chinguacousy last Tuesday as Ching broke out for five second-period goals to put the game away, despite Acton hitting for three in the third.

Finding the net for the locals were Gary Genzler, Chris Williams and Dave Newell.

Registering assists were Newell, Trevor Malloy, Jason Pembleton and Steve White.

Last Monday, the locals delighted the home town crowd at the Community Centre with a 6-3 triumph over Fergus in a Tri-County, Harrison Division matchup.

Acton jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the first period and upped it to 5-2 after the middle frame.

Williams and Jon Routledge each fired two goals. Malloy and Newell counted the others.

Chalking up assists were Williams with a pair, Newell, Pembleton, Routledge, Josh Marcoux, Matt Boycott and Adam DaPonte.

PEEWEE 1

With at least four regulars missing from the lineup last week, the Galvcast Sabres struggled, but came away in the end with a pair of 2-1 victories in a home-and-home series against Fergus.

The Sabres swept Fergus this year and kept their lead atop the standings with an 18-3-1 mark.

At the Community Centre last Wednesday, Kyle Artem and Jason Christopher found the net from Mike Hills twice and Marc Forbes.

Last Monday, Artem and Greg Barends scored on the road.

Forbes, Joe Field, Scott Monaghan and Jeff Newman assisted.

Says Sabre coach Bob Dube: "You could call it winning ugly, but we'll certainly take the four points."

"Despite not having one line intact, the boys gave 100 per cent to win these two games."

PEEWEE 2

They may have only hit the ice once last week, but the URW Local 603 Sabres provided some exciting entertainment at the Community Centre on Saturday, prevailing 4-3 over Grand Valley.

The locals now have a modest two-game winning streak against the two top teams.

Ron McCaslin, when not busy meting out punishing checks, was busy filling the net with a well-deserved hat-trick.

House league call-up Joey Zinke played well also and provided the tying goal in the second period.

And ever steady defenceman Ryan Young had a trio of helpers, while his blueline partner, David Metcalfe, notched a pair. David Iacocca and Sam Brunelle also chipped in with an assist each.

Rory Dick looked brilliant in his fifth straight start between the Sabres' pipes.

BANTAM 1

The Bantam Firefighter Sabres' hope of heading into the holiday season riding a long win streak were dampened last week with a pair of losses and a tie.

The locals were hosed 10-3 in Fergus on Sunday and 3-1 Saturday in Oakville after a 6-6 draw last Tuesday here against Fergus.

In the 10-3 loss, Sean Durkin scored twice and Jon Routledge, assisted by Durkin, had one goal.

Brian McIntyre also assisted. In Oakville, Routledge fired the lone local goal from Bob Brooks.

Meanwhile, the Sabres found the net six times at the Community Centre to start the week.

Derek Lockerbie led the home side attack with two goals. Singles went to Durkin, Routledge, Derrick McIntyre and Brian McIntyre.

Nick Vancek set up two goals. Single assists went to Durkin, Routledge, Derrick McIntyre, Phil McIntyre and Mark Faseruk.

BANTAM 2

Icing only two lines for the week, the United Aggregate Local 488 Sabres proved they couldn't be faulted for a lack of desire and strong work ethic, posting a 0-1-1 record.

On Sunday, too many trips to the penalty box hurt the locals in a 9-6 loss to Elora.

Brent McGuire earned two goals. Others were scored by Scott MacDonald, Mike Palmer, Bob MacDougall and Adam Petch.

Petch, MacDonald and MacDougall had two helpers apiece. Singles went to Palmer and Jimmy Dickinson.

Petch scored twice and Palmer once in a 3-3 tie against Milton on Saturday.

McGuire, MacDonald and Dino Protopoulos hit for assists in the Sabres' strong defensive effort.
