Atom Canes lose Consolation

They may not sport the best league record this year, but the Halton Major Atom AAA hockey Hurricanes and their roster of 12 fared well in stretching their Consolation final against Kitchener to overtime at a recent tournament in Niagara Falls, New York.

The locals, who hold a 4-12-2 record in league action, stormed back to tie Kitchener in the middle frame after the latter held a 2-0 first-period lead.

However, Canes coach Scott Withers was down to seven skaters by the third period due to three players suffering from the flu.

With fatigue setting in, the Hurricanes didn't have the legs to prolong the game. Kitchener scored with 1:05 left in the extra period.

"I thought we played solid all weekend," Withers says. "We've lost a lot of our league games in the third period after being within a goal."

The Hurricanes were bumped to the Consolation final after being stopped 4-0 by Whitby.

The game was scoreless, however, with five minutes to play, but Whitby exploded for goals in quick fashion.

To open the event, the Canes were pitted against a strong Don Mills Flyers outfit from the Metro Toronto Hockey League (MTHL).

Withers was allowed to grab some affiliated players for this contest to boost his skating total to 12 from 10.

The locals were ahead 3-1 with two minutes left, but settled for the tie.

NOTES: The Hurricanes are guaranteed at least four games when they travel to Burlington on Dec. 27 for a holiday tourney ... Brandon Valente, David Brooks and Kyle Lodberg are the Acton reps on the Hurricanes ... The Canes tied Guelph 1-1 in league play on Saturday on the road.
