Peewee Canes bounced from tourney semifinal by Senators

The Halton Minor Peewee Hurricanes competed recently in the Niagara Falls, New York Festival of Lights tournament.

Once again, the Canes put forth a good showing, only to lose 4-3 in the semifinal to the Mississauga Senators.

The Hurricanes came out flat in this game, falling behind 4-0 midway through the second period. Acton's Joel Petkoff assisted.

Leading up to the semifinal encounter, the locals faced a must-win or tie scenario against the Chinguacousy Blues.

Tied 1-1, Petkoff notched the game-winner off a brilliant three-way passing play.

He walked in along on the Blues netminder and stuffed the puck by him following a nice backhanded deke for the 2-1 win.

In earlier tourney play, the Hurricanes trounced Batavia 8-0.

Petkoff found the net once and added three helpers.

However, the Canes also suffered a 3-1 loss to the Don Mills Flyers of the Metro Toronto Hockey League.

This was a close, exciting game as the Hurricanes took the 1-0 lead in the first period before the Flyers knotted the score 1-1.

Meanwhile, in league action last Wednesday, the Hurricanes came back from a three-goal deficit to tie Oakville 4-4.

Petkoff earned two assists.

The Canes' next league game is tonight (Wednesday) against Welland at Tonelli Arena in Milton. Game time is 7.

NOTE: The Hurricane players took in an Ontario Hockey League game involving the Guelph Storm in Guelph on Friday as part of their Christmas celebrations.
