Atom Canes adjusting to coach's system

Scott Withers is just now seeing the rewards of the system employed by his 10 skaters.

The Halton Major Atom hockey Hurricanes squad has posted three ties in its last five games, the latest a 2-2 draw against second-place Burlington in an exhibition game at Tonelli arena in Milton on Monday.

Acton's Brandon Valente scored the go-ahead goal that held until the last two minutes of the game.

Last Wednesday, the Hurricanes were blanked 4-0 in Brampton.

"We're just coming on now," said coach Scott Withers yesterday (Tuesday). "We played a super game. They (first-place Brampton and Burlington) were beating us by seven or eight goals earlier in the season. "It usually takes me half a year or more to instill my system — to play like a team — because the players are all from different centres and taught different systems."

Withers has also had a tough time recruiting players this year, because of the long travels to practices for players living 30 to 40 minutes out of the region.
