

EARLY-MORNING BLAZE ON MAIN STREET

$160G BLAZE GUTS MAIN ST. HOUSE

Acton commuters on their way to Hwy. 401, along with early-rising pedestrians, got a close-up look at this house fire at 10 Main St. S. last Wednesday morning. Five tenants escaped without injury, while the blaze caused $160,000 damage. Top, flames shoot out the back door and smoke pours out a side window moments before fire fighters arrived. Right, tenant John van Dam walks away from the burning house as fire fighters scale a ladder through a cloud of smoke. (Norman Paulsen photos)

'Action' event on May 1

Acton business owner Paul Jordan will be guest speaker at the next Action for Acton seminar, slated for Andy's Restaurant on Monday, May 1 at 7 pm. Jordan's presentation is titled "The Buck Stops Here." According to a press release, he will "draw on his extensive marketing background to share many useful tips and ideas, and he will also pose some intriguing questions to challenge the audience."

Tickets can be purchased from Jake Kuiken (853-5062), Andy Katsilieris (853-0300) or Wendy Blair (853-5910). Group member Helen Lomax comments: "Fostering cooperation between business and citizens is essential to the economic growth of our community, so everyone is invited to come and hear how we can maximize the potential form our town and make it a better place for everyone."

TV auction coming up

Here's your chance to bid on some great products and services — and help your community at the same time. If you live in the Cable 4 TV telecast area you will find in today's Tanner PLUS! the Kinsmen TV Auction list of items.

The auction is slated for Monday, May 1 and features over $30,000 in items. The annual event, now in its 11th year, is a major fundraising project to help the many Kinsmen community projects around the Acton area.

For residents living in non-cable areas, you can pick up your flyer at the Acton Tanner and Halton Cable offices.
