

AHS Junior soccer girls shut out in 3rd straight game

The Acton Redmen Junior girls' soccer team gets points for being encouraged and keen, but not on the scoreboard.

While the locals carried the ball more and created more scoring chances on Monday in Georgetown against the Lady Rebels, the result was the same as the first two games of the 1995 Halton high school season — a shutout.

This time 3-0, thanks to a splendid effort by Denise Katsilieris in the Redmen net.

"The goals she allowed were more lofting shots that she couldn't get to," said Redmen coach Dave Boycott yesterday (Tuesday).

"We play a lot of the game in our end and the goalie is called upon a lot to do a good job."

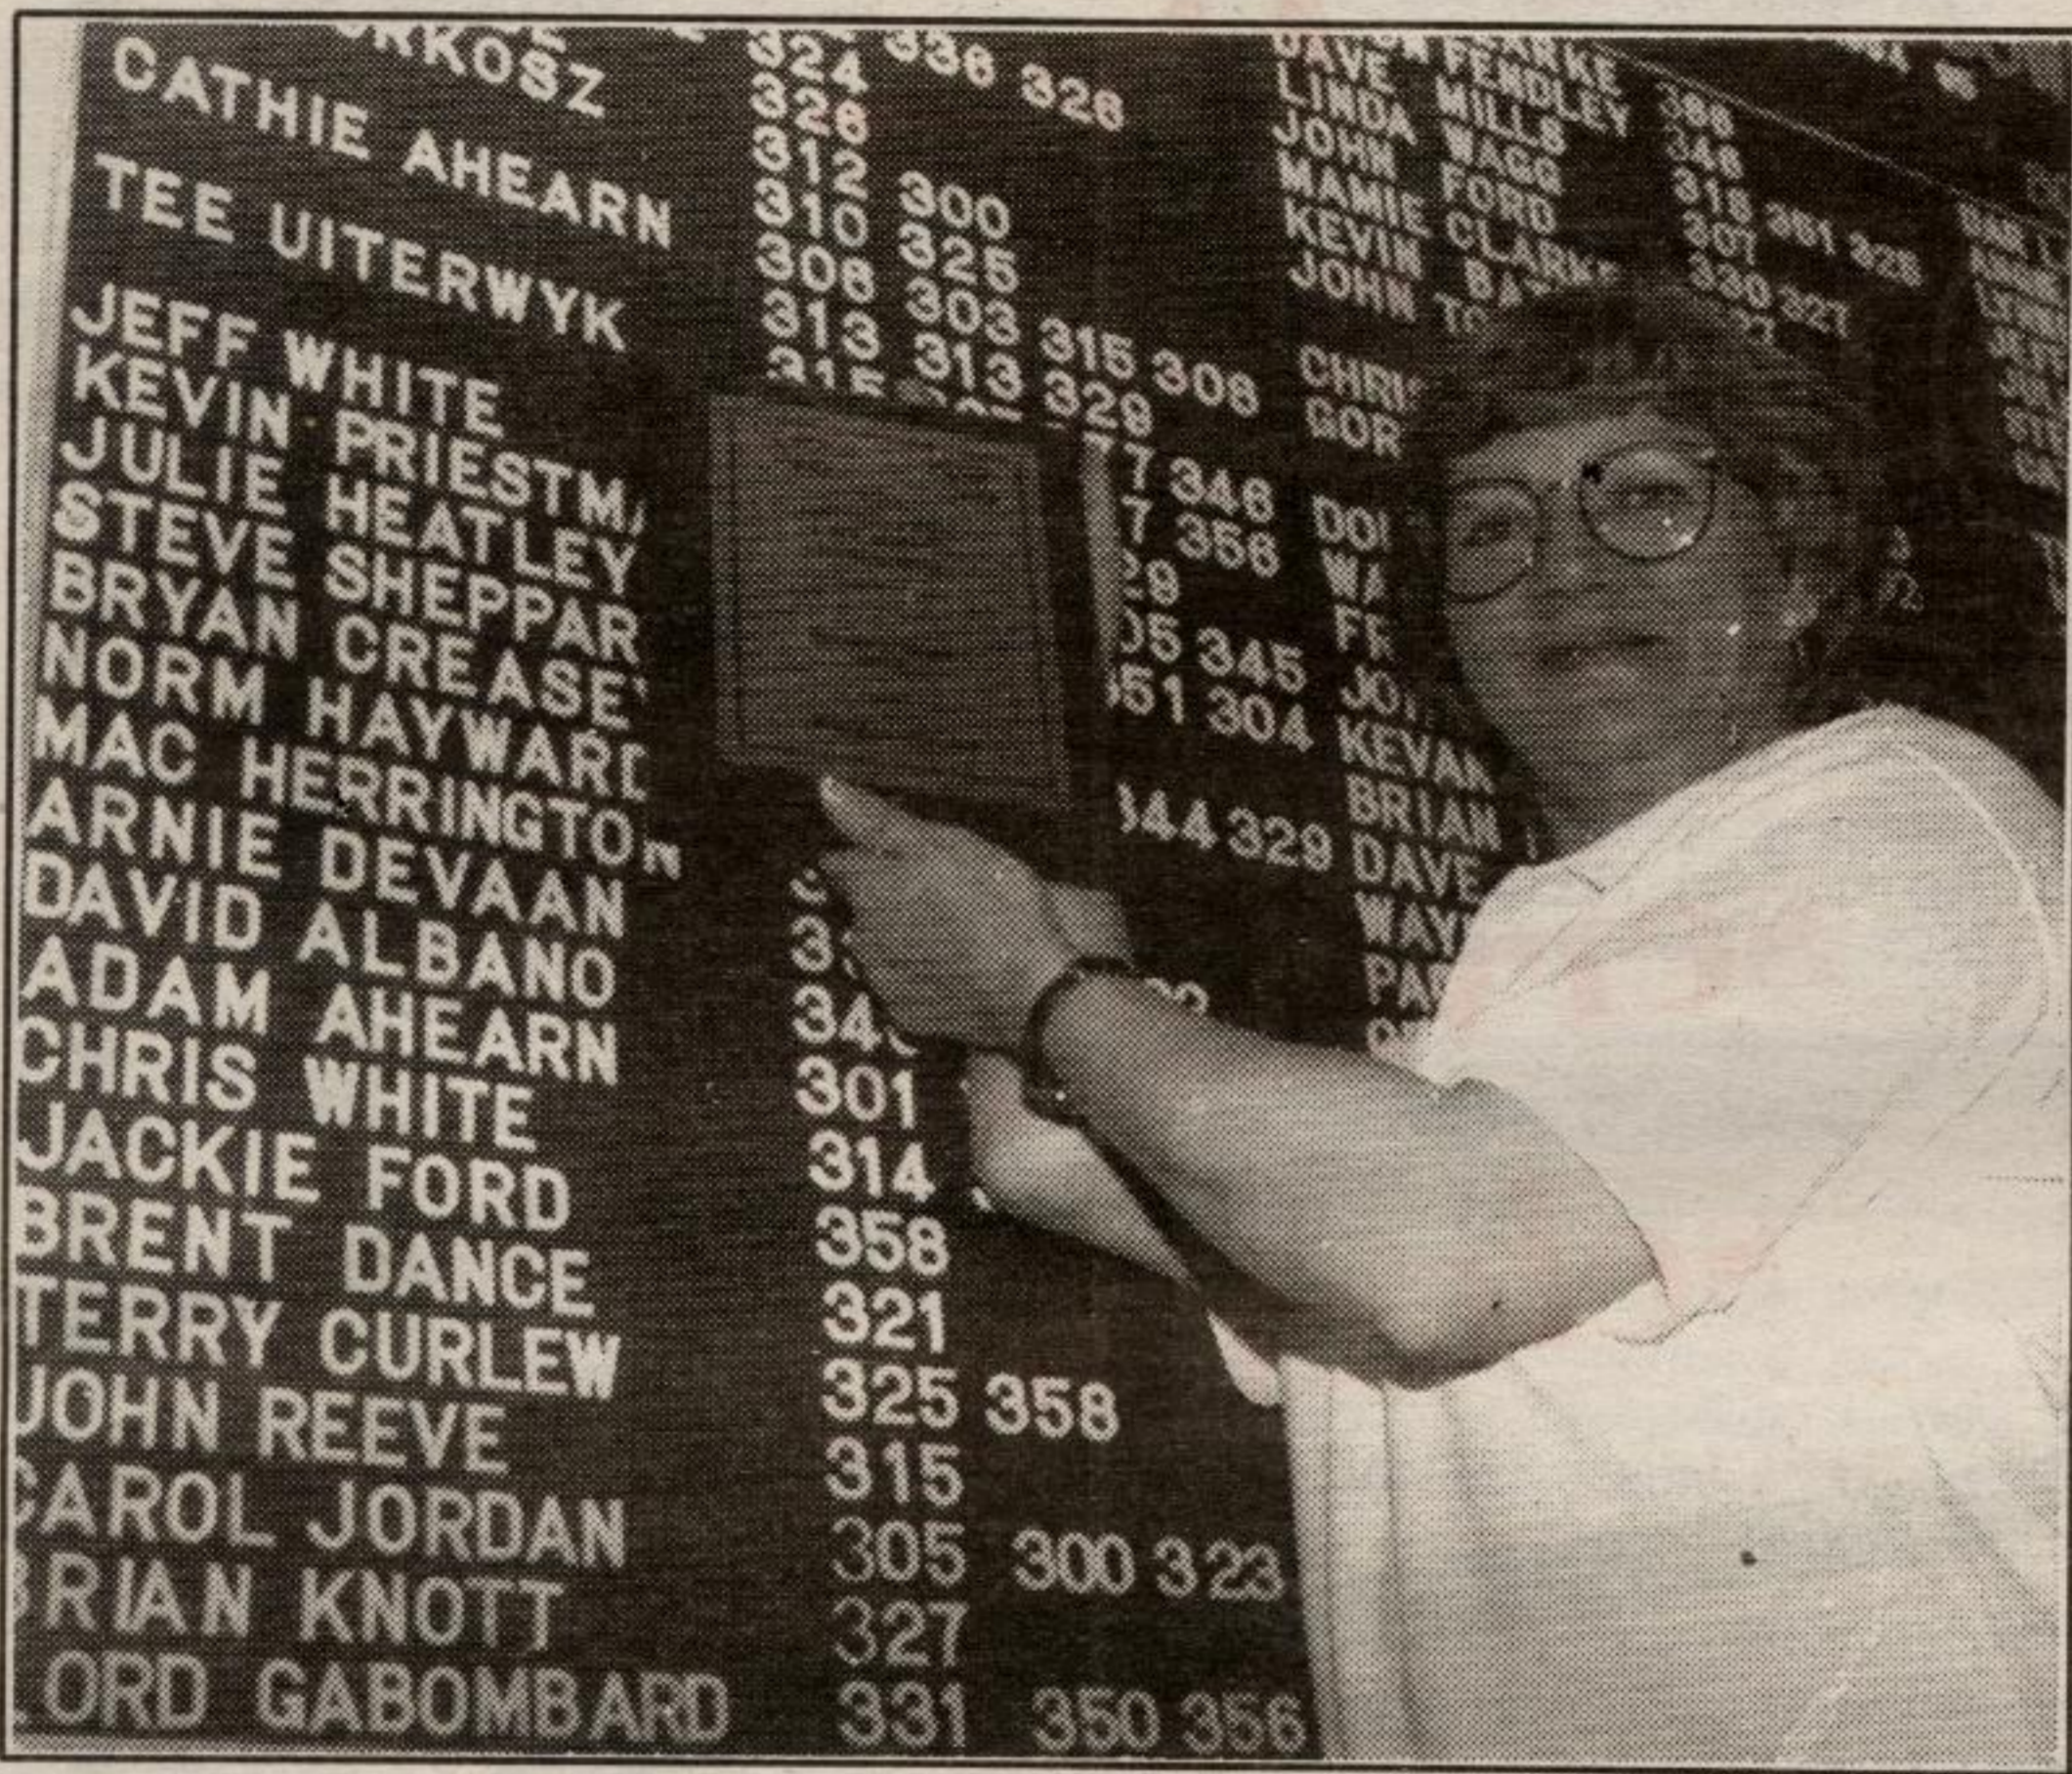

The visitors continue to look sharp from a goaltending and defensive perspective, but after three regular season games, Redmen players have yet to raise their arms in celebration of a goal.

"Instead of trapping the ball and moving it up the field, they're getting in front of it and just kicking it," said a disappointed Boycott.

"They just don't have the skill level. When they're challenged on the ball quickly, it scares them."

NOTE: The 0-4 Redmen were whipped 9-0 by undefeated Burlington Nelson here last Wednesday.

Acton bowler Cathie Ahern received this plaque for being named rookie of the year at the recent Ontario 5-pin championships in Hamilton. She averaged 238 in singles play and 262 in team action. She also won two tickets to a Blue Jays game. (Doug Harrison photo)
