

Fundraiser at Auto Tech

Summer Mental Health fund-raisers kick off next Saturday, June 3, with an event at Acton Auto Tech. The Main Street service station will host a barbecue and car wash between 8:30 am and 1 pm. The car wash costs $3, while you can get a hot dog and a drink for $1.

"We've been holding these fundraisers for the past couple of years and we'll likely have a couple more this summer, in July and August," explained Rhonda Ellard yesterday (Tuesday). Ellard is a mental health worker at the Acton branch of the Canadian Mental Health Association.

Money raised goes toward the Oasis program, which offers social activity to local adults with mental health disabilities. The program runs on evenings and weekends and "the majority of participants are Acton residents," according to Ellard.
