

Kentner's 3 hits tops Nellis in 16-1 softball rout

MINOR BASEBALL RESULTS

HARDBALL

The pitchers had trouble finding the plate and the defence shoddy, but the bats were working, producing 10 runs in Entertainment Tonight's 10-7 win over Limehouse last Monday in Acton.

After a scoreless first inning, Limehouse threatened in the second, but to no avail. E.T., on the other hand, scored seven runs, aided by four walks, a single by Mike Smith and two-base hit by Mark Faseruk.

Limehouse tied the game at 7-7 before E.T. took the lead on two walks and a Limehouse error.

The home team added a run in the fourth frame.

E.T. plays tonight (Wednesday) in Kilbride at 6:30.

"Better get these bats going," was the response of Acton Standard Products Midget hardball coach Bill Clark after his squad dropped their season-opener, 7-3 to Milton recently at Maple Hurst Park.

Acton pitcher Jason Pembleton struck out six over three innings, but didn't receive a lot of run support.

In the second inning, Cory Harding scored from third on a wild pitch. Kevin Moreland followed that by crossing the plate three innings later. Grant Russell singled to start the sixth inning and was soon brought home on Jason Davis' hit.

Defensively, Acton turned a pretty 1-6-3 double play initiated by Pembleton. Davis took the throw at second and fired the ball to first baseman Lou Mastro.

The Marzo Glove Bantam boys' hardball team took it on the chin last week, losing two games to Carlisle I and Waterdown.

On Thursday, Jeff Miller, Bryan Coles, James Reeve and Brett Timukas all hit run-scoring doubles (Coles added another later) in a tough 8-7 loss to Waterdown at Prospect Park.

Bryan Boyko added a pair of RBIs and Chris Ashley ope.

At home to Carlisle I last Tuesday, Reeve and Ashley knocked in two each, while Boyko earned the other on a steal of home in a 7-5 loss.

In Mosquito ball, Trevor Hall blasted a grand slam to lead Acton Auto Tech's attack in a 20-7 debacle of Campbellville here last Tuesday.

Also contributing hits were Pat Shibley, Chris Galda, Matt Dayman, Ryan Stroud and Chris Rivers.

Outstanding pitching performances were turned in by Greg Voisin, Steve Boychuk and Adam Burgess.

Auto Tech coach Dave Dayman's defensive play of the game went to shortstop Chris Rivers, who made a strong throw to nail a runner at first.

Acton's Atom boys doubled Meadows 12-6 on Thursday to even their record at 1-1.

Mike English carried the big stick for the locals, belting a three-run dinger to signal an early exit for the Meadows starting pitcher.

Eric Gall also chipped in with a two-run shot.

Acton hurlers Jay Lalonde and Trent Toletzka each supplied three innings of three-hit ball.

In rookie action at Prospect last Tuesday, Acton's Heartland Shipping Supplies fell 15-6 to Carlisle.

Scoring for Acton were Aaron Chiasson, Brady Masters, Ryan Winters, Kyle Winters, Brett Manes and Neil Moon.

The remainder of Heartland's roster includes Nick Ridler, Nigel Williams, Brad Near, Cody Killingbeck, Tim Medland, Zack Sher, Tommy Dawkins and Darryl McKnight.

Burke's Aluminum saw its record evened at 1-1 after an 11-6 defeat to Kilbride on the road last Monday.

Troy Ethier topped the visiting offence with a two-run homerun. C.J. Carr, Steven Semenech, Stephen Gilbert and Kyle Creasey also recorded hits.

Acton plays in Brookville tonight (Wednesday) at 6:30.

SOFTBALL

Their first game was cancelled due to rain, so Acton's Nellis Construction Tykes decided to rain on Glen Williams' parade last Monday with a 16-1 trouncing in the Glen.

Justin Kentner had the big bat for the visitors, grabbing three hits. Shaun Harkley and Matthew Tunney with two and Clark Sinclair had the others.

An all-around strong showing by BPCO Inc. Vinyl Siding players resulted in an 8-2 win over Silver Heights on Thursday at Prospect Park.

Laura Barens delivered a well-pitched inning, Michelle Galda struck for an RBI-double and Carolyn Chaisson caught a great game.

In recent action, Stephanie Thompson hit a two-run homer in the second inning against Acton, but it wasn't enough in a 13-8 loss.

Also scoring runs were Carolyn Chaisson twice, Ameile Barens, Samantha Schroeder, Michelle Galda, Laura Barens and Sarah Wood.

Andy's hardballers capture 1st win

Strong pitching, solid defence and an explosive offence were the keys to a 6-4 win by Andy's Restaurant over a veteran Burlington squad in ladies' hardball last week.

Andy's scored five times in the first two innings on the strength of six hits — Ricki Petch, Marie Ivory, Shelley Horney, Lauren Furness and Sandra Wray.

Rookie catcher Furness looked like a seasoned vet behind the plate, throwing out three would-be basestealers.

"Not bad for someone who argued with me before the game that she couldn't catch," joked Andy's skipper Brad Hammond of Furness.

"After that outing, I'm positive her confidence level has increased. If she maintains a high level of intensity she will be a threat for all baserunners."

The powerful Andy's offence was enough to hold the competition as ace pitcher Ivory threw four scoreless innings of no-hit ball with nine strikeouts.

"Awesome," was how Hammond described her outing. "We knew she would be tough, but we had no idea she would be so dominating. Coming off a hand injury, we just wanted her to get some work, but she made the most of the situation."

Pitcher Jamie Davies tossed a strong fifth inning, holding Burlington to a single hit.

While the entire defence has improved, walks and four throwing errors contributed to all Burlington's scoring. "Everything seemed to come together today," Hammond said after the game. "With Game 2 under our belt, I'm positive the errors will drop."

"We're extremely proud of all the girls. Many people doubted we could win a game all season, but the team has surprised a lot of people, including themselves," added assistant coach Duane Piper.

With their first victory, Hammond is confident his Andy's club will enjoy success in '95. "I always knew they had the talent to be competitive, and maybe even win this league.

"Their grit on the field during this latest game proved they're fighters. They came together as a team and made a lot of believers with the win. But, most importantly, they're beginning to believe in themselves."
