UNDER-7

Justin Mota booted a hat-trick to lead Blue Springs Flower Shop to a 4-0 shutout of Acton Town Milk last Monday at M.Z. Bennett.

Danielle Morin scored the other Blue Springs marker.

Kyle Morin came up with some strong netminding in the first half for the winners, while Danielle Morin was unbeatable – even on a penalty kick – in the second half.

Sara O'Donnell, Robyn Spiers, J.T. Cooper, Richard Brownlee, James Heaslip, Jeffrey Somerville, Kaleigh O'Driscoll, Joshua Cecotti and Becky Somerville all were cited for good play.

For Acton Town Milk Courtney Moddle and Evan Colvin worked hard in net. Mellissa Ferguson was cited for strong kicking, while good hustle was displayed by Elias Frechette, Patrick Eagan, Stephanie Sherien, Michael McKeon, Kevin Vickery, Scott McKeown, Erin Mann, Gordon McKeon and Joe Frechette.

Super Submarine torpedoed Halton Credit Union 5-0 in other action last Monday.

Ashley Hill-Stone played a solid game for Halton Credit Union. Matthew Caverley made a great run, while Arielle Hess put forth a strong effort.

Holland Shop and Pamper Me Pets battled to a scoreless draw in more action last Monday night.

Clarke Buchanan, Ian Reid and Emma Jolly all displayed super efforts for Pamper Me, in a game that was played at a hectic pace despite the hot and humid evening.

UNDER-9

Kyle Bodi booted a pair of goals to lead MacMillan's to a 3-1 win over Rockwood Firefighters in Rockwood last Tuesday.

Ryan Wilde found the net for the other MacMillan's score, while Justin Gibson picked up the Firefighters' marker.

Eric Corman and Jordan LaRose were solid in net for the visiting side, which handed Rockwood its first defeat of the season.

Leathertown Lumber battled Milton to a 3-3 draw on Thursday night, with Acton goals coming from the feet of Beth Clayton (with two) and Samantha Splinter.

Diana Dreschell played well in goal for Leathertown, while Laura Pacevicius and Leanne Wilson also played strong games.

Leathertown Lumber travelled to the Milton Heritage Tournament on Saturday, losing to Milton by a 2-1 count in their first of two encounters.

Julia Sisnett picked up the lone Acton goal in this game, while Heather Ellis and Katy Boychuk were stong in net. Splinter and Kendra Freeland also played well for Leathertown.

The local side really got it revved up in Game 2, blanking Milton 4-0.

Sisnett came through with a pair of goals in the big win, while Clayton and Ellis got singles.

Ellis and Pacevicius combined in goal to earn the shutout for Leathertown, with Denise Barends and Mikala Labelle contributing impressive efforts.

UNDER-11

Mr. Mugs hammered Puslinch 5-2 in action last Tuesday at the Aberfoyle Community Centre.

Meghan Colvin blasted three goals for the winners, while Manda Waples picked up the other two.

Heather Moon and Tia Hess shared netminding for Acton, while Jennifer Reeve, Emily Boycott and Judy Robinson were cited by their coach for strong play.

ADVANCING THE BALL!

Holly Goddard had the hat-trick for Lakeview Flooring in a 5-1 drubbing of Milton in action last week. Game day and location were not provided.

Nicole Findlay and Lisa Wood scored the other Lakeview goals, while Zoe Glass and Kasia Silarz (coach's spelling) had good games.

strong influence in net.

Acton played this contest with only 10 players, while Bolton had a full side.

Two days earlier Acton Cleaners were shut out 5-0 by a strong Brampton squad at M.Z.

Emma Douglas, Kim Lyndsay and Rachel Andrews were cited for strong efforts in the loss.

UNDER-15

Acton Cleaners battled Bolton to a 1-1 draw in action Thursday night at M.Z. Bennett.

The Acton side was down 1-0 going into the second half, but with 15 minutes left to play, Erin Douglas connected on a Colleen Thompson corner kick.

Theresa Clayton and Jen Tremblay had big efforts for the home side, while Jennifer Elliot was a

Reps lose to Dixie

Acton's MacMillan's-First Stop Under-14 rep squad lost a hard-fought 7-4 league cup match to Mississauga's Dixie B side last Wednesday in Acton.

Two Joel Petkoff markers sent Acton into halftime locked at 2-2 with the visitors. Derrick Inscoe and Jason Mota picked up assists on Petkoff's goals.

Danny Gorlewski, off a Brady Straw penalty kick, and Petkoff (assisted by Ryan Bowen) booted goals in the second half, but it wasn't enough for the locals.

Josh Robbins, Jeff Payne and Ben Williams played strong games in a losing effort.

The team will play in a St. Thomas tournament this weekend.
