

Golf tourney is Monday

The local Senior Games Committee is hosting a Seniors' Golf Tournament on Monday at Acton Meadows. Rain date is July 17.

The tournament is open to any seniors, age 55 and up. The $23 entry fee includes green fee, Ontario Senior Games fee and coffee and muffins. Participants who place in the top-three will gain entry into the Halton-wide tournament in Burlington this September.

Players who have a golf handicap must present organizers with a signed card on the day of the event.

For registration information, Acton seniors can phone the Town's Recreation and Parks Department at 877-2600, ext. 262.

Sylvan's Adult Education Programs will open doors for you too.

Perhaps you want to get ahead in your job, to help your children in school, or simply to enjoy life more. The Sylvan Adult Education Programs are designed to help you enhance your abilities in reading, math, and writing. Through a series of diagnostic tests we can identify problem areas and design an individualized program of instruction.

Each of Sylvan's Adult Programs is designed to teach you new skills in addition to enhancing those skills you already have. By helping you to master those skills relating to reading, math and writing, Sylvan will enrich your life. And, because every one of our programs is individualized, you can start any time. Why not today?

McKenzie-Smith grads honoured

Highlights at McKenzie-Smith Middle School's graduation ceremony at the Acton Legion last Wednesday evening included a valedictory address by Stephanie McKay, along with the presentation of the McKenzie-Smith Bursary to top all-round students Jeff Birrell and Jen Schultz.

The hall was filled to capacity as 89 Grade 8 graduates entered to the tune of Pomp and Circumstance, followed by a warm welcome by Principal Chris Logan.

The theme for the event was "Under the Sea" and the Legion was decorated with tissue-paper fish and blue helium balloons.

Acton High Principal Joyce Bradley congratulated the grads, and welcomed them to the high school in the fall.

Special Award winners included: Krista Glass (Norma Silcock Citizenship Award), Maya Barbir and Matthew Bodin (Lakeside I.O.D.E. Most Improved Students), Jennifer Schultz (Legion Ladies' Highest Average), Kristie Goy (Agricultural Society Award), Kristin Finley and Sandy Chapman (Top Athletes), Lisa McHugh (Boyd and Ruby Clark English Award), Tricia Johnson (Arts Award), Bailie Galimanus (Gary Dawkins Attendance Award), Jen Schultz (Halton Student Excellence Award), James Mashinter (Concert Band) and Andy Kilmer (Jazz Band).

After the awards presentation, Counsellor Kevin Dorsch showed a humorous slide presentation highlighting school activities throughout the year.

Drop-in a great idea

ASSIC ALERT

Are you looking for a place to go this summer with your young children? The Acton Parent-Child Resource Centre provides a drop-in program, a toy lending library, a book resource library and caregiver theme kits.

The Centre is located at the Band Hall at 85 Wallace St.

The program offers a relaxed setting where you and your child can enjoy crafts, singing, story time and lots of play experiences.

The drop in program runs Monday and Friday from 9:30 to 11:30 am, and 1 to 3 pm, and Wednesdays from 10:30 am to 2:30 pm.

For details call the Centre at 853-2574 or ASSIC at 853-3310.

Foot care clinic

The next Step Ahead Foot Care Clinic will be held on July 12 at ASSIC (19 Willow St. N.).

Step-Ahead provides preventative foot care for seniors and the disabled. To make an appointments call ASSIC at 853-3310.
