

Halls, Friolet grab 3 assists in 3-0 Blue Peanuts win

RAMS LACROSSE

PEEWEE

The McIntyre Fuels Peeewe Rams battled Brantford at the Community Centre last Wednesday, but were doubled 8-4.

The home team was in the game for the better part of two-and-a-half periods with Brantford up 5-4.

But the visitors broke the game open with three goals in the game's final five minutes.

Branden Valente, Nick Mastro, Michel Dube and Adam Lindsay scored for the 6-6 Rams.

Lindsay also set up three goals, while Dube, Ryan Weatherall,

Steve Atkinson and David Lyons were credited with single assists each.

The Rams host Guelph tonight (Wednesday) at 8:30 and Milton tomorrow at 8:30 pm.

NOVICE

The Acton Lions Club Rams' scoring slump continued last Wednesday as they were blanked 8-0 by Brantford at the Community Centre.

With the setback, the locals record dropped to 3-5-2.

The Rams are busy in this the final week of the regular season.

They played in Fergus on Monday, tangle with Guelph here tonight (Wednesday) at 7:30 and Milton tomorrow at 7:30 pm.

This weekend, the Rams compete in a Mississauga tourney.

TYKE

The North Halton Material Handling Rams dropped their lone game last week, a 5-1 decision to Brantford.

Kyle McDonald fired the Acton goal, assisted by Matt Lyons and Greg Black.

PEANUT

The Bank of Montreal Blue Rams defeated the Knights of Columbus Whites 3-0 on Thursday.

Curtis Marcoux notched the hat-trick for Blue.

Picking up assists were Braeden Halls and Melissa Friolet with three each.

The Peanuts play every Thursday at 6:30 pm at the arena.

Andy's drops 2

The Andy's Restaurant Junior Girls' hardball team participated in its first-ever tournament in Ajax over the weekend.

"We may not have been successful in winning the tournament, but we were successful. It was a learning experience that can only help us grow as a team," explained skipper Brad Hammond after the game.

The tournament was a double knockout format and the Acton squad found itself in trouble from the outset against Ajax.

The visitors fell behind 9-0 after the opening inning en route to a 13-9 defeat.

A shaky defence and a controversial call by the home plate umpire didn't help in Acton's first loss of the tourney.

The call in question occurred with two out and the bases loaded.

According to Hammond, an Ajax batter grounded to Acton third baseman Jamie Davies, who threw home for the force play. However, the umpire signalled the runner safe, saying catcher Lauren Furness didn't tag the runner.

"In all the years I've played and coached, I've never heard of the catcher needing to tag the runner out on a force out. It was ludicrous," blasted Hammond.

The next batter pounded the ball over the fence for a grand slam off starting pitcher Beth Henderson.

"We were impressed with how the girls reacted. They didn't get down on themselves," Hammond continued. "They chipped away at the opposition and made a game of it."

Jamie Davies, with two hits and four RBIs, earned MVP honours in Game 1.

Aches, pains and a tired pitching staff compounded in a total breakdown for Game 2, an embarrassing 29-0 loss to league-rival Mississauga.

Acton ties Hillsburgh

Kris Adema scored four goals to help the Acton Under-15 Boys' soccer team eke out a 7-7 tie against Hillsburgh in Erin on Monday.

Down 4-1 at the half, Acton coach Al Kourashi moved keeper Adema to the forward position and he responded.

Joey Field, Greg Barends and Ryan Gallagher scored a goal each, while Shawn Gray set up Adema's second score.

NOTE: Acton only dressed eight players to Hillsburgh's 12.
