

Ex-Pen Hudson an NHL free agent

BY DOUG HARRISON
The Acton Tanner

Mike Hudson has been given his walking papers by the cost-cutting Pittsburgh Penguins and is free to ink a deal with any NHL squad.

The 28-year-old centre was one of six Penguins who wasn't tendered a contract for the 1995-96 season.

"They (Penguins management) kind of warmed us up to it," Hudson, who recently vacationed in Vail, Colorado, said yesterday from Rockwood. "With Mario Lemieux coming back, the team payroll will be around $30 million, which is far beyond any other club."

While not naming teams, Hudson—who earned $375,000 last season—says "a couple of teams" have shown interest in his services.

"I'd really like to go back to Pittsburgh," Hudson stated, "with Mario coming back and because I enjoyed playing under coach Ed Johnston."

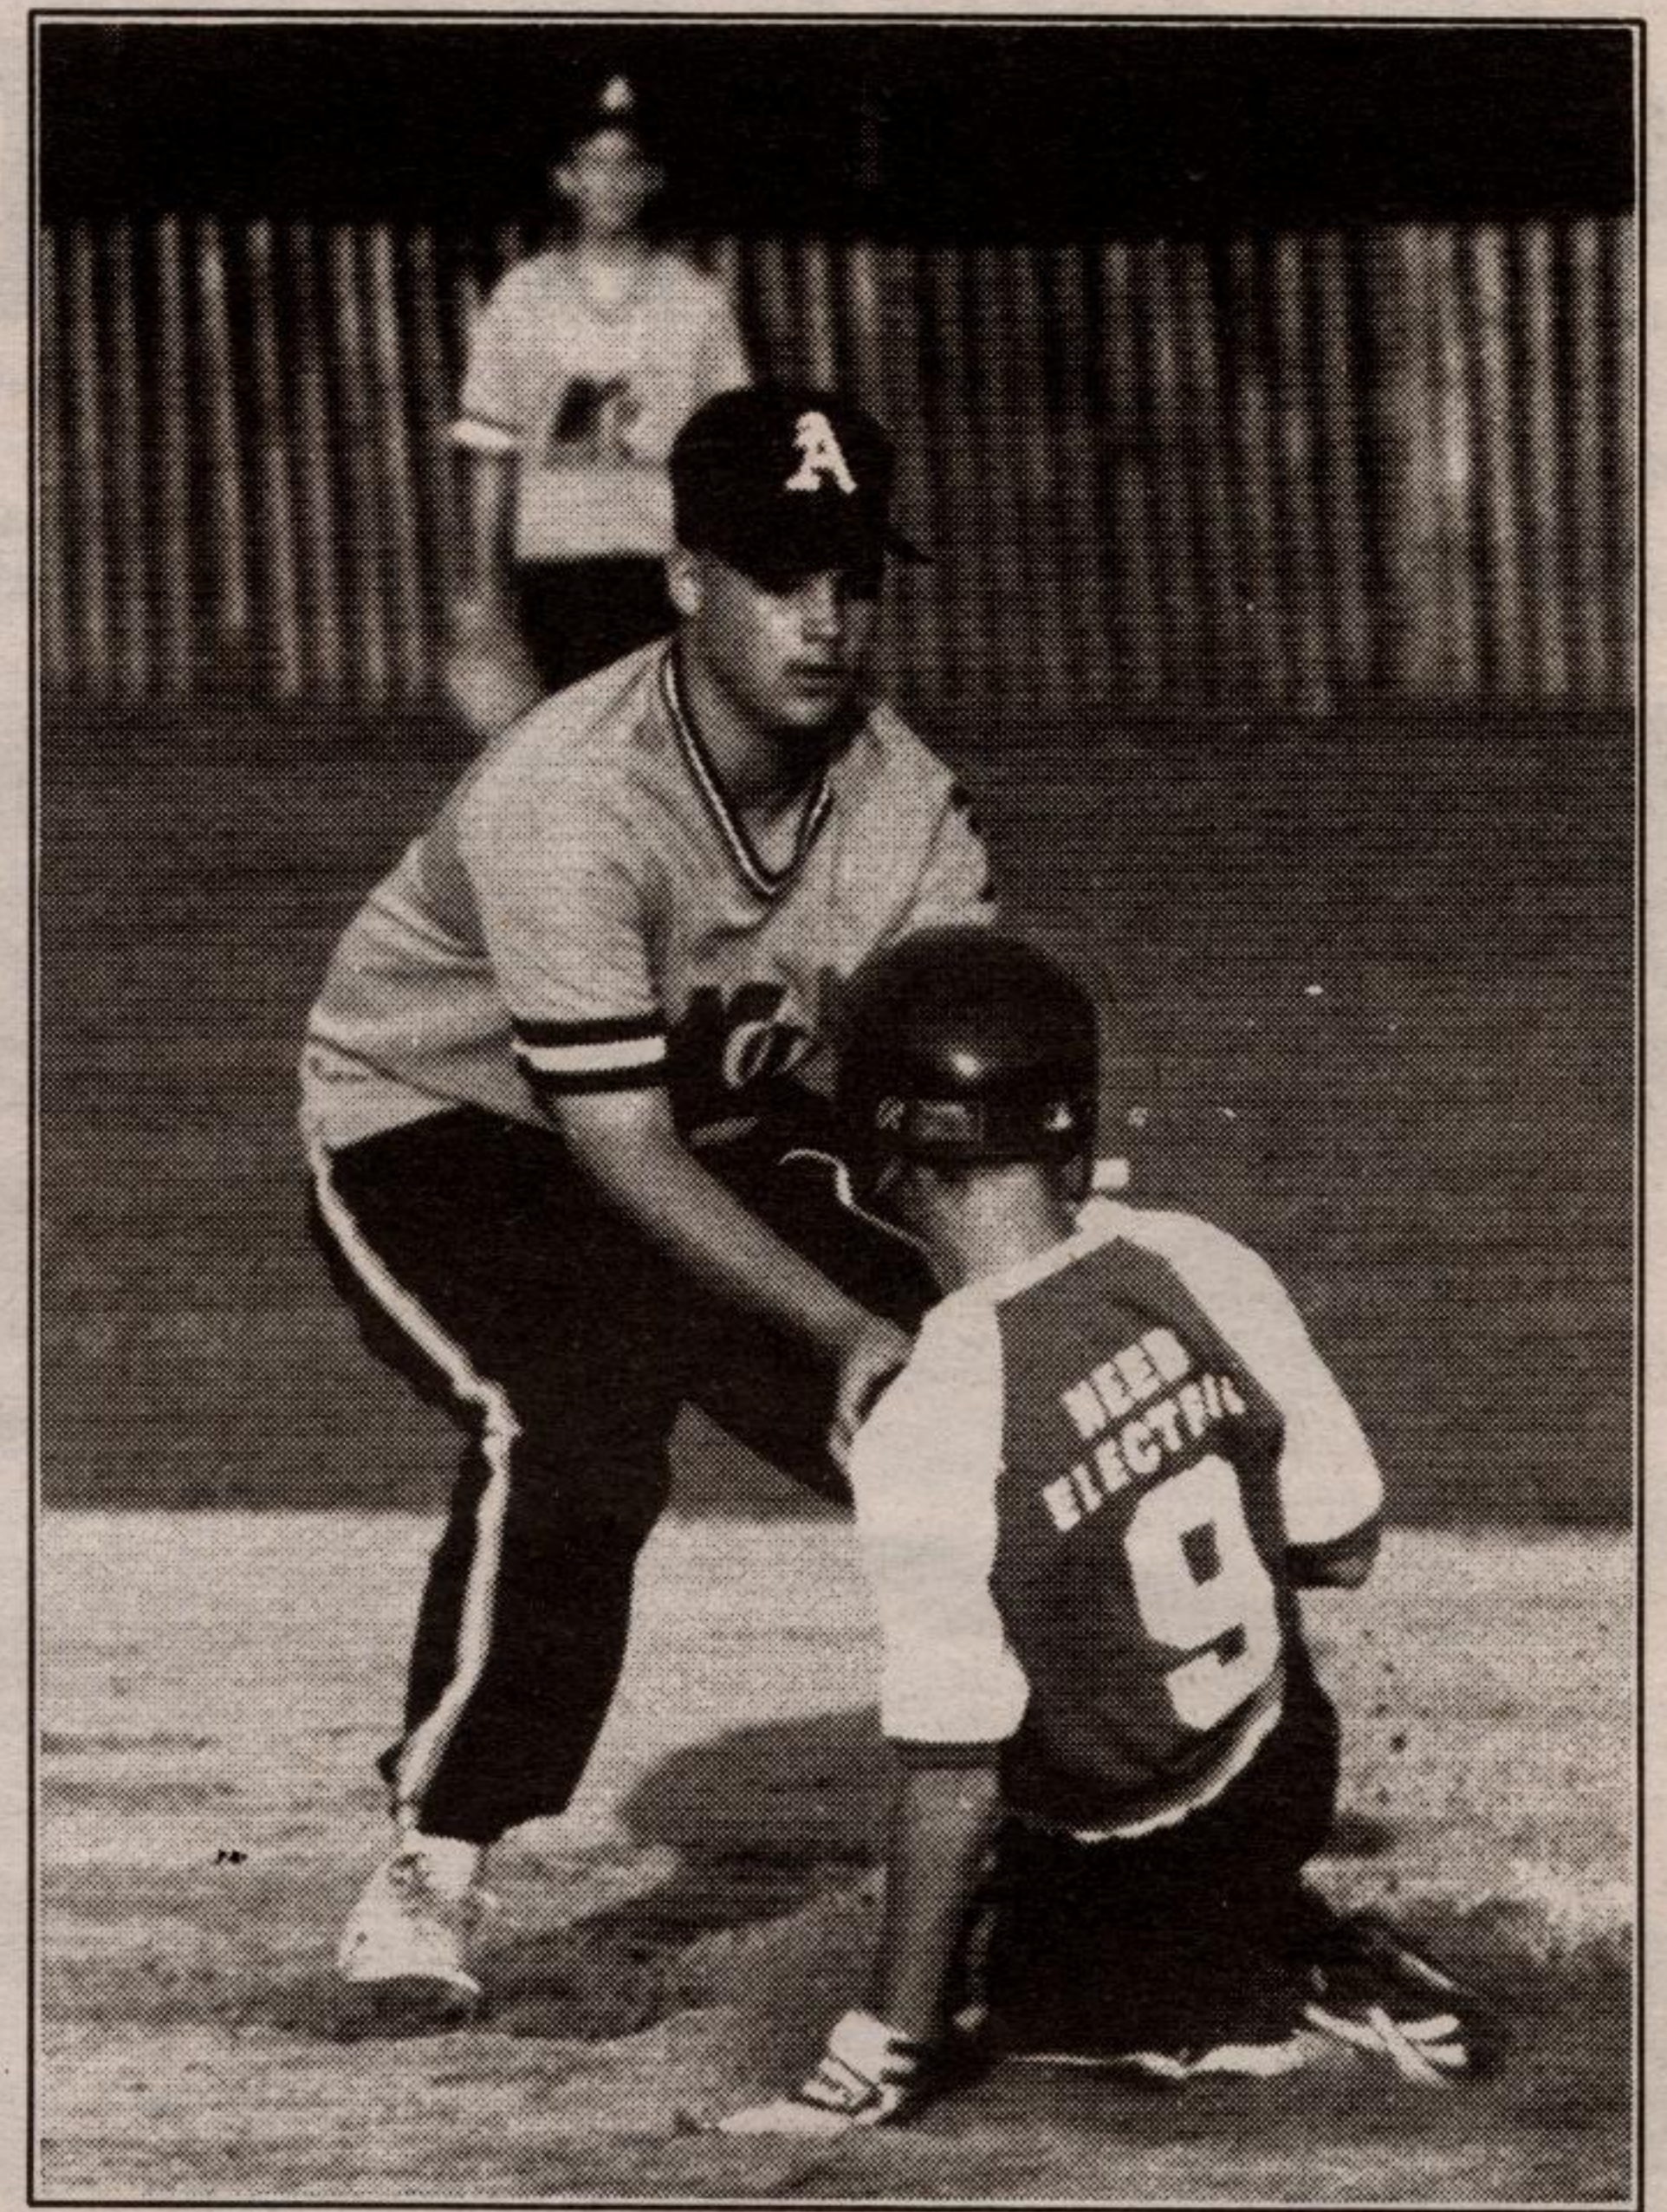

Yellow Fish Road program needs help!

The Yellow Fish Road program urgently needs volunteers to help out during the summer.

The program has managed to decrease the amount of paint, oil and other harmful chemicals being dumped down storm drains, but there are still thousands of drains that need to be marked.

The warm weather and sun are perfect conditions for the program. But with Girl Guides and Boy Scouts finished and school out, it is hard to find volunteers.

If interested, call Monique Koehli at Credit Valley Conservation at 670-1615, ext. 264.
