Smile Theatre returns to town

Special to The Tanner PLUS!
Due to popular demand, ASSIC invites you, once again, to enjoy quality theatre as Smile Theatre Productions of Toronto returns to Acton — with three new plays!

Penny For a Song is a historical review of this century's favourite songs and how they were written. It comes to town October 3.

Popcorn Princess is the story of the life and career of the famous movie star Deanna Durbin, as portrayed through the eyes of a devoted fan. This play will be performed Jan. 18, 1996.

The third play runs April 11, 1996. Shooting Star is Dinah Christie's new musical about Canada's greatest long distance runner, Tom Longboat.

All three plays provide excellent historical entertainment to audiences of all ages. The curtain rises at Acton High School at 7:30 pm. Tickets are $7 each or three for $15.

Smile is a non-profit group of professionals who produce fine musical plays. If you have already attended a production, you certainly know how wonderful they are! And if you haven't, now is your chance to enjoy quality theatre at affordable prices.

Come alone, bring a friend or the whole family. Transportation may also be arranged where necessary. For tickets or more info, call ASSIC, 853-3310, or drop into the office at 19 Willow St. N.

Off for the summer!

BANNOCKBURN W.I.

BY EDITH MEDLAND

Bannockburn Women's Institute Young Frankland was the hostess for the June meeting of the Bannockburn Women's Institute. Nine members answered the Roll Call, "Tell about a historical place you have visited."

The Thought for the Day was given by Ina Peterson, a lovely poem entitled Family Tree.

Linda Cairns gave a detailed account of the happenings at the District Annual meeting.

Plans were made for euchre on June 22 and Aug. 3. Also for muffins and cookies for the Quilt Festival at the Agricultural Museum on Aug. 5 in Milton.

About six members will be attending the Area Convention on Oct. 4.

A delicious dessert was served by Ruth Linham and Young. Courtesies were extended to Young by Reina Morrison.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Linda Cairns, Aug. 29. See you then, and have a good summer.
