

Fendley belts 3 homers for Rene's

MINOR BASEBALL

HARDBALL

In Rookie action last Tuesday, Robbie Rolfe doubled, tripled and knocked in four runs to lead Burke's Aluminum past Campbellville Lions 14-4 in Campbellville.

Steven Semenech and Troy Ethier added a homer and two RBIs each, while Kyle Creasey and Michael Burke brought home two on a triple and double. Tyler Holmes also doubled, scoring two.

Ethier banged two homers as Burke's doubled Brookville 6-3 here recently. Rolfe plated two runners on a triple and Holmes singled, doubled with an RBI.

On the hill, Holmes, Ethier and Tyler Knoepfli were effective.

Heartland Shipping Supplies tied Campbellville Tigers 14-14 here last Tuesday.

Aaron Chiasson homered to pace the home side.

Scoring other runs were Chiasson with three, two to Nick Ridler, Brady Masters, Tommy Dawkins, Neil Moon and Nigel Williams. Brett Manes scored once.

Brad Near was noted for his superb pitching.

Denny's Insurance's Jason Wells almost singlehandedly defeated Rockwood last Wednesday in the locals' 12-6 win at Rockmosa in a Mosquito match.

Other RBIs were collected by winning pitcher Brock Spear (double) and Troy Ethier (single) with two apiece, while Mark Finnie (single), Chris Schiller (two singles) and Mike Borg (single, double) had one each.

Neal Dawkins also singled.

Acton Foodland Peeewe Boys beat Waterdown II 9-5 recently.

Michael Kentner led the offence for 3-2 Foodland with two RBIs. Joey Thompson, Mike Rowsell, Darren Selihar, Robbie Price and Michael Varanelli had the others.

On the mound, Thompson took the win with four innings work, allowing four runs, walking three and striking out seven.

Selihar relieved him in innings four and five, surrendering a pair of hits, walking a single batter and fanning two.

In a recent game, Steve Le Sarge's two RBIs highlighted Foodland's showing in close 9-7 setback in Limehouse.

Rowsell and Thompson also posted RBIs.

Marc Chiasson and Corey Brock were the offensive sparkplugs in Marzo Glove's 8-7 trimming of Kilbride here on Thursday in Bantam Boys' action.

Chiasson swatted two doubles.

Brock ripped a pair of singles.

Ryan Schmidt added a double, while singles were turned in by Matt Hall (scored), Chris Ashley (scored), Wayne Hobson and Chris Near (scored).

SOFTBALL

Andy Burnett launched his first home run of the season and Neil Armstrong went deep twice, but it wasn't enough for the Tim Hortons TykeBoys to silence Glen Williams II in a tough 20-16 loss.

Sean O'Donnell, Andy Burnett and Jimmy Berry also mashed round-trippers.

Burnett later doubled. Berry also reached base on a single.

Other hits went to Michael Bentley (single, double), Kyle Fendley (double), Anthony Luna (double) and Kyle Osborne (triple).

In Girls' action, B.P. Vinyl Siding went 1-2 against Puslinch, Hornby and Acton's Curwood Packaging at the recent Glen Williams Tri-County tournament.

Shannon Harkley belted two homers and Laura Barends one in a 20-14 setback to Curwood.

Amanda Corp, catcher Sarah Wood and Stephanie Thompson topped the Vinyl Siding defence.

In a 10-8 win over Hornby, Barends and Harkley accounted for the bulk of scoring with grand slam homers each.

Supplying great defence were Michelle Galda, Ashlyn Timukas and Shannon DeSilva.

Against Puslinch, special mention goes to Meghan Williams, who played through the 14-10 defeat with a broken toe.

Good defence was shown by Samantha Schroeder, Carolyn Chiasson and Amelie Barends.

T-BALL

Jessica Blazenko hit a grand slam in Daniel Varanelli's encounter with the St. Alban's Saints last Wednesday at Sir Donald Mann.

Stephen Bennett and Carney Bourgeois stood out defensively for Varanelli's.

Outstanding Saints players were Joelle Galda, Katie Zions and Laura Dawkins.

In recent games, Varanelli battled KFC with Garrett Nuttal and Taylor Begg strong for Varanelli.

KFC was led by Jacob Walsh, Jennifer Lenson and Billy Rozell.

A & S Engraving tangled with the St. Alban's Saints, with Derek Hopcraft and Alexander Brake topping their respective teams.

Brandon Hopcraft and Matthew Mills were tops for A & S.

Katie Zions and David Carscadden stood out for the Saints.

GRASSHOPPER

Rene's Flowers dropped its first game of the playoffs last Tuesday, 17-13 at Sir Donald Mann to MacKenzie-Chapman.

Dylan McPhail smashed a grand slam, while Josh Fendley tallied the hat-trick of homers and Thomas Harding was terrific at second base.

Special mention goes to Chelsea Harris and Jordan Burton for their creative cheering.

Under-17s score 1 goal in 3 losses

A very talented and organized Bolton Under-17 Girls' soccer outfit took their Acton opponents to the cleaners last Wednesday, whipping them 10-1 on their home turf.

Acton was in the game for about 15 minutes, and then it was all but over.

The bright spot for the visitors was the play by Under-15 call-ups Collen Thompson and Jenny Tremblay.

Tremblay scored with a hard shot to the top corner.

Regulars Julie Diamond and Erin O'Leary played solidly.

In recent action at Acton High, Acton came up short against Brampton, losing 3-0.

Good plays were made by Hanna "Boomer" Allen and Bridgette Thompson.

A shot off the crossbar by Collen Thompson and goal crease scramble by Lisa Campbell made the game exciting to watch.

Acton was shutout two nights prior by the same 3-0 score in Milton.

Good plays were headed by Ricki Petch, Bridgette Thompson and Jodie Davies.

Special efforts were made by Courtney Norman, who substituted in the Acton net for the vacationing regular keeper.
