

Peewees, Novices fail to place at provincial championships

PEEWEE

The McIntyre Fuels Rams competed in the league's provincial tournament two weeks ago, playing at .500 with a 2-2 mark, but they were bumped from the event by Huntsville.

In that 7-5 loss, the Rams fell behind 3-1 early, but rallied to knot the game before the end of the second period.

However, Huntsville quickly restored its lead, this time with three quick goals for a commanding 6-3 advantage.

Scoring for the locals were

Adam Lindsay with a pair, Matt Wolfer, Ryan Weatherall and Michael McDonald.

Assists went to Weatherall with two, Wolfer and Lindsay.

The Huntsville defeat came on the heels of an 8-7 setback to Gloucester.

The Rams fell behind 4-2 after the opening period as Michel Dube and Adam Tyler potted goals for the Acton squad.

Gloucester upped the lead to 5-

2 early in the middle frame before the Rams exploded for three goals to even the match.

Wolfer, McGuire and Weatherall were the marksmen.

Early in the third period, Gloucester went ahead 7-5.

Lindsay scored, but Gloucester added an insurance marker.

With two minutes left, Brandon Valente scored.

To start the tourney, Weatherall had three goals and added an assist in a 7-3 victory over Oakville.

Valente, Wolfer, McGuire and McDonald scored singles.

Picking up assists were Lindsay twice, Wolfer, McGuire, Weatherall, Dube and Nick Mastro.

The locals rolled over Midland 10-6 in their second game with Weatherall grabbing four goals and an assist.

Wolfer added a pair of scores. McDonald, Lindsay, McGuire and Steve Atkinson netted singles.

Mastro, Valente, Wolfer and McDonald set up the goals.

NOVICE

The Acton Lions Club Rams ended their season at the provincial finals in Hamilton on the weekend.

The Rams were dumped 6-1 by Owen Sound on Saturday, as Nick Crowe fired the lone goal.

Saturday night saw Bolton beat the Rams 5-3.

On Friday, Acton narrowly defeated Six Nations II 4-3.

Chad Henry and Matt Lyons had two goals apiece. Henry, Scott Williams, Matt Bronizewski, Mike Gerrow and Chad Artem assisted.

Williams, Bronizewski and Lyons pulled the trigger in a 3-1 verdict against Nepean.
