

IVORY HEATER!

Andy's Restaurant Junior Girls' hardballer Marie Ivory readies to unleash a pitch to a Burlington batter at Prospect Park last Wednesday. Andy's scored six runs in the last inning to eke out a 17-16 win. However, they were bumped from the playoffs on Friday, 17-4 in Burlington. (Doug Harrison photo)

Rockwood to host friendship ball tournament on Sept. 2

Rockwood Peeewe Boys' baseball coach Jim Monaghan is teaming with Nick Dodd in organizing a Peeewe Invitational fastball friendship tourney, set for Sept. 2 at Lloyd Dyer Park.

Visiting teams include Guelph, Belwood and Waterloo.

Rainout dates are Sept. 3 and 4.

Following is a schedule of Rockwood's games:

8:30 to 10 am: Rockwood vs

Waterloo;

10:15 to 11:45 am: Rockwood vs. Belwood;

noon to 1:30 pm: Lunch and skills competition (eight drills);

3:30 to 5 pm: Rockwood vs. Guelph;

5:15: Championship game.

Every player will receive a poster, pop and chips, while the MVPs in the final game will receive two tickets to a Blue Jays game. As well, all players on the winning team and winners of the skills competition will receive a $30 ball bag.

"I think the kids are going to love the skills competition," Monaghan predicts. "It's a last hurrah for 1995 and to have some fun."

Monaghan has lined up a disc-jockey to play music between innings and a local vocalist will sing O'Canada before the final.
