Time for Fair, Fox Run — and 'Citizen' banquet

Welcome to the August edition of PLUS!, the once-a-month consumer newspaper that gives Acton and Rockwood residents all the best in dynamite deals.

No doubt, this is an exciting time of the year, with some interesting events planned for the next few weeks.

Of course, we've got the Acton Fall Fair slated for Sept. 15 to 17. The fair is the highlight of the year around these parts, and this year's edition is sure to be one of the best.

On Fall Fair Sunday at the Acton High track, the 15th annual Terry Fox Run for Cancer Research is planned.

Since Terry's untimely death 14 years ago his dream to find a cure for cancer has been embraced by millions around the globe. To date a remarkable $144 million has been raised for innovative cancer research projects.

If you've waited until now to participate, in this event, please make this fall your "Rookie Run."

The Friday before the Fair is the Acton Citizen of the Year banquet at the Legion.

The target, er, guest of honour this year is Jack Carpenter, and there are some special performers scheduled to appear (including British band-leader Stan King).

Get your tickets from any Rotarian, or pick them up at Halton Hills Furniture or McNabb Graphics.

Oh, and did I mention that school starts in another week? Sorry, kids — but it has been a great summer, hasn't it!
