Vehicles vandalized

There were several incidents of mischief to vehicles reported in Rockwood last week.

Some time overnight Saturday, four vehicles parked in the lot at Squires Lodge were vandalized. Hood ornaments and logos on the vehicles were damaged, and a personalized license plate was stolen.

Guelph OPP are conducting a follow-up investigation.

A vehicle parked at a home on Conc. 1 in Eramosa Township overnight last Thursday was entered after someone pried off the door handle.

The thief, or thieves, made off with an AM/FM cassette stereo.

Refresher course

If there is enough interest, the Eramosa Seniors' Resource Centre will organize a 55-Alive Driver Refresher Course this fall.

This is an innovative driver re-training program designed specifically to help older drivers improve their driving skills.

To register or for information on the program, call Elaine at the Eramosa Seniors' Resource Centre, 856-2113.
