

Trinity United congregation welcomes Rev. Matton

TRINITY UNITED NEWS

On Sept. 10, the potter, Jeremiah, some of the Hands Up Puppeteers, plus the congregation saw and heard the words of faith in many innovative and creative ways.

A visual surprise awaited all of us in the form of two new royal coloured "stain glass styled" cloth banners at the front of the church.

The hangings were created by Mary Ann Austin, Liz Bailey, Helen Dubeau and Cathy McGillivray.

On a gorgeous sunny morning, the puppeteers presented a delightful and meaningful presentation on the theme of love and living.

Next, we met Jeremiah (Rev. Bob Matton) as he dressed in the costume of the ancient world. We observed the potter at work making a vessel of clay, and all of us became involved in the dialogue between Jeremiah and the potter, about worship and faith.

This was followed by a skit put on by the church flower committee, to encourage more people to become involved in the decoration of the church.

After this creative service of music, drama and worship, everyone went downstairs for finger food and fellowship.

On Sept. 24, Trinity held a special covenanting service, to welcome Rev. Robert Matton, which was followed by refreshments and fellowship.
