Looking for Junior Citizens in Acton, Rockwood

Welcome to the September edition of PLUS!, the monthly consumer newspaper that gives residents of Acton, Rockwood and area all the best in dynamite deals.

Did you know that in Ontario there are close to 1.9 million young people between the ages of 6 and 18. Most are filled with energy and vision, who see what needs to be done and don't wait for someone else to do it.

These are the young people we are looking for. The young people who deserve consideration for the Ontario Junior Citizen of the Year Awards.

Jointly sponsored by the Ontario Community Newspapers Association and Bell Canada, the Junior Citizen program has, since 1981, paid tribute to exemplary individuals who are our leaders of tomorrow.

Out of those 1.9 million young people we are asking you, as interested community residents, to help us find up to 12 young people to receive this award.

Some will be honoured for their tremendous attitude in living with an illness or handicap. Others will be selected for responding instantly in a moment of crisis, or for the way in which they have shown kindness and compassion.

Acton's own Sara Murphy was recognized two years ago with a Junior Citizen certificate. Sara is a young Actonite who has volunteered with FoodShare, Cancer Society, Heart and Stroke Foundation and her church.

You can pick up a Junior Citizen nomination form at our offices at 12 Church in Acton.

Churchill Community Church's annual chicken barbecue, held Saturday night, was again one of the gastronomic highlights of the year in this area.

It was the best bird I've had in many moons. Succulent!

One question for organizers: Would you please consider making this a monthly event?
