Assembly shows importance of poppies

ST. JOSEPH'S NEWS

BY MARKO TONKOVICH & MARCUS DAGENAIS

We had our annual Remembrance Day assembly on Friday. The Grade 7s acted out Why Wear a Poppy? and there was a moving slide presentation accompanied by Pie Jesu from John Ritter's Requiem, on a recording by the Cambridge Singers. Two students from each grade placed symbolic pictures on the mural that had been painted by the intermediate students. We tried to remember the price paid for our freedom.

The Grade 2s went to John McCrae's house in Guelph. He wrote the poem In Flander's Fields. They sent a message by HAM radio.

The volleyball teams returned on Thursday from the Bishop

Reding tournament. The boys finished in fifth place and the girls in second place. They've been looking forward to the playoffs yesterday (Tuesday).

The SKs have been busy reading all the Clifford books they could find. They made mini Cliffords out of materials they are recycling. They are looking forward to an appearance by Clifford himself, some time this week!

Parent gives art lessons

ROBERT LITTLE NEWS

BY SAM MILLS & TROY ETHIER

This past month, a mother of one of the students in Mr. Kaiser's Grade 4 class has been coming in to give art lessons. Her name is Mrs. Friolet. We interviewed her son Andrew, to see how he feels about his mom coming in.

He said that he feels good about it and he enjoys the art she does. His favourite part is doing wax pictures.

It is Waste Reduction Week and the Earth Kids are doing a real non-garbage push. They are putting signs up all over the front hall of the school. Ms. Brown gave out lists for classes to keep track of how much is in the garbage, the recycling bin and the compost.

We had our Remembrance Day assembly on Friday. The junior and primary choirs sang three songs, one was a song of peace. We sang the National Anthem. All classes made a wreath presentation and there were wreaths of many different sizes and shapes.

We also listened as Mrs. Spence read a poem called I Was There by Marilyn Sachs. Students Emily Henderson, Steven Duffield, Galen Kerr, Brandon Inns and Jason Dreschel portrayed the characters in the poem.

Back to normal at Legion

LEGION NEWS

BY MIKE MANUEL
Branch 197 P.R.O.

After the Remembrance Day's activities, it is back to normal for Branch 197. Once again I would like to thank everyone for their participation in making these important few days something that will remain with us for a very long time.

The following activities should be noted: Nov. 24, Initiation Night begins at 7:30 pm; Nov. 25, Beef Draw; Dec. 9, Turkey Roll; Dec. 31, New Year's Eve party; Jan. 1, President's Levee.

For details, call the Legion.
