Tourney semi cut short

There's six seconds to go in a three minute overtime, a two-point differential and a girl at the foul line.

Anne Andrews couldn't get over the suspense. It seemed too good to be true.

It was. Seconds later, a town-wide power outage hit Acton.

That was the scene at Acton High on Saturday in the late stages of the semifinal during the Acton Redmen Junior Girls' Invitational basketball tournament.

"I had never been in a situation like that," says Andrews, who stood on the sidelines during the T.A. Blakelock-Mayfield matchup.

"I was standing with the girl at the foul line with a flashlight."

Both coaches and referees agreed to decide the game in a soccer shootout form. Both teams picked five players to shoot twice. Blakelock won 46-43 and will play Bishop Reding in the final in the near future.

Meanwhile, the Redmen advanced to the still-to-be-played consolation final by virtue of their 37-13 win over White Oaks. Earlier they fell to Reding, 37-12.

"We played excellent against White Oaks. Everything was clicking," explains Andrews.
