Jr. Redmen volleyballers will make playoffs: Andrews

GIRLS' V-BALL PREVIEW

BY DOUG HARRISON

The Acton Tanner

He's only seen them practice, but Bruce Andrews boasts he has the makings of a playoff team.

The Junior Redmen Girls' volleyball coach bases his bold prediction on two words: height and good athletes.

"I think we'll have a good team," Andrews said on Monday, adding his six returnees and seven rookies are tall and good athletes.

They are also in the midst of learning a 6-2 (six attackers, two setter) offensive system. "We'll be a good attacking team."

The Redmen will have to work on passing, the coach pointed out. When asked about their serving at practice last week, Andrews chuckled and responded "it will come along."

Standing out at practice so far is high school rookie Kristen Finley, who is a Peel Select Midget player.

"She's going to help herself and us," Andrews said of Finley, who will be used primarily as a setter to start the season, but will also see work at the power position. She's a power with Peel.

Andrews wants to work on court coverage, attacking and positioning before this Friday's tournament at White Oaks in Oakville.

The Redmen will be part of a pool that includes St. James (Guelph), Q.E. Park, Hillfield-Strathallan, Bishop Reding and Aldershot from Burlington.

The Redmen roster is as follows: Kelly Holmes, Stefanie Adams, Eleni Halis, Courtney Norman, Darya Barbir, Maya Barbir, Vicki White, Steph McKay, Kristen Finley, Jenn Schultz, Rebecca Austin, Janice Olsen and Samantha Brewer.
