

ACTON MINOR HOCKEY REPORT

NOVICE 1

The Nellis Construction Sabres added three shutout wins last week to push their season record to 15-1-2.

The weekend included wins over Arthur (3-0, 4-0) and Orangeville (5-0).

Sabres goaltenders Lee Dunbar and Jordan Guindon shared the goose eggs.

Andrew Robitaille scored a pair of goals. Kyle Winters notched a single goal in the 3-0 win.

Jesse Sparkes, Nick Newby, Daihe Kuiken-Rogers, Kyle Strong and Brett Manes assisted.

Newby and Winters led the locals with two goals each in the 5-0 Orangeville win.

Robitaille added a single marker. Assists went to Strong and Kuiken-Rogers with two, Newby and Robitaille.

In the 4-0 verdict over Arthur, Strong and Robitaille each posted a goal and assist.

Newby and Blake Martin finished the scoring.

Winters earned two helpers. Kuiken-Rogers and Michael Wood recorded single assists.

NOVICE 2

After being ambushed 9-0 by Erin in the first game of the Erin-Hillsburgh tourney on Saturday, the Andy's Restaurant Sabres fell 6-2 to Kitchener.

Patrick Glatt and Matt Locke, who also assisted, found the net for the Sabres.

Also assisting were Kyle Marshall and Michael Bentley.

Tied 2-2 in the middle of the third period, the Sabres couldn't rebound from two quick Kitchener scores.

"Overall," says Sabres coach Mike Marcoux, "it was a very good effort by this young team. They never gave up despite the score."

ATOM 1

The Rotary Club Sabres won and tied last week.

Last Wednesday, Acton tied Arthur 4-4 here at the Community Centre.

Sean Kirk and Shawn Prentice each scored two goals for the hosts.

Earning assists were Mark Pawlak, Michael MacDonald, Max Schaeffer, Matt Wolfer and John Field.

Adam Lindsay's goal at the 14:53 mark of the third period lifted the Sabres to a 3-2 win in Orangeville last Tuesday.

Wolfer and Field rounded out the Sabres scoring.

Setting up two goals was Steve Atkinson. Single helpers were turned in by Pawlak, Wolfer, Patrick Sherren and Adam Lindsay.

In recent action, the Sabres whipped Brampton 6-0 at the Community Centre.

After a scoreless first period, the Sabres got goals from Wolfer and MacDonald in the second.

Lindsay with a pair, Pawlak and Stefano scored in the third period.

Picking up assists were Lindsay and Adam Brouillard with two apiece, Field and Wolfer.

ATOM 2

Acton Proplastex had their second eight-goal game in a week last Wednesday, dominating Erin-Hillsburgh 8-1.

That extended their win streak to four games and put their record at 12-3-2.

Nick Mastro led the attack with four goals and two assists.

Jon Newby, Brendan Dick, Darryl Wright and Brian Field had the others.

Newby added three assists. Field had two, while singles went to Colin Sheehan and Jesse Hepburn.

Defencemen Stephen Boychuk and Ben Williams played well for the Sabres.

'TEAM OF THE WEEK'

The Nellis Construction Novice 1 Sabres have the best league record of all Acton teams this year at 15-1-2 and have been named this week's Team of the Week.

The Sabres lead their division, but both Elora and Fergus are hot on their heels.

Goaltenders Jordan Guindon and Lee Dunbar have recorded three shutouts in the last three games and have four in total.

The locals hope to celebrate Christmas twice when they host the Acton Novice Christmas Week Tournament on Dec. 27.

Following is the Sabres player roster: captain Andrew Robitaille, assistant captain Kyle Strong, assistant captain Jon Newby, Chad Artem, Patrick Collins, Troy Ethier, Daine Kuiken-Rogers, Brett Manes, Blake Martin, Tim Pembleton, Jesse Sparkes, Michael Wood and Kyle Winters.

Bill Manes is the head coach, with Dave Ethier assisting. Trainer is Terry Winters and Vince Rogers is manager.

The Nellis Construction Sabres would like to wish everyone a Merry Christmas.
