

Sr. v-ballers shine at Ottawa event

BY DOUG HARRISON

Message to all Volpe Division Senior Girls' volleyball squads: the Acton Redmen will not mail you two points in the second half, you will have to earn it.

The locals enter the second half of the Halton high school season tomorrow (Thursday) fresh off a tough loss on the weekend in the consolation final at a 20-team tourney organized by the University of Ottawa Gee-Gee's Ladies' varsity squad.

Seven of the top-ranked teams in the province, including the current top three, attended.

In all, 15 Triple-A and four Double-A schools competed, the Redmen the lone single-A outfit.

However, that didn't faze the locals who took Ottawa Triple-A squad A.Y. Jackson High to three games in the consolation final.

After dominating Game 1 15-6, they fell 11-15 and then pushed Jackson in Game 3, suffering a heart-breaking 13-15 loss.

"It was the best volleyball I've seen us ever play," says Redmen coach Bob McKay, who guided his team to a seventh place finish in last year's OFSAA championships in North Bay.

"It's starting to happen where the better competition we face, the better we play. It's exciting."

The Redmen were invited to the event by Gee-Gee's and Ontario Juvenile coach Lionel Woods, a friend of McKay's.

The Redmen sported a 2-4 record in round-robin play to finish fourth in their pool.

They downed ninth-ranked Widdifield from North Bay by point differential for a quarterfinal berth against Ottawa.

Despite all the opposition's starters standing over 5-foot-10, the Redmen swept them three straight games. They then upset fourth-ranked Chippewa (Double-A) to meet A.Y. Jackson.

"The girls got to see and play exceptional ball," notes McKay.
