

Bantam Canes finish 2nd

The Halton Minor Bantam AAA Hurricanes hockey club just completed its most successful year, finishing second in the 11-team loop.

They accumulated 44 of a possible 64 points in the 1995-96 season.

Captain Dave Lajeunesse — an Acton resident — scored another hat-trick in a 4-3 season-ending win against Guelph.

Linemate Sandy Chapman — also of Acton — assisted on all three goals, while Chapman and Lajeunesse set up Brandon Taverres' marker.

Acton was well represented on the Bantam Hurricanes. Chapman played on the top line where he was the spark of the unit.

- Daryn McIntyre, despite missing seven weeks with a broken collar-bone, surpassed last year's offensive output while being the locals physical force;

- Goalie Andrew Coe was consistent in goal all season;

- And Lajeunesse was the Canes' top scorer with 66 goals and 43 assists for 109 points.

Lajeunesse's play will determine how far the Hurricanes go in their OMHA playoff against Chinguacousy starting tonight (Wednesday, 7:30, Milton's Tonelli Arena).

Jr. Redmen cagers led by Birrell's 49 points

A 1-2 record, in most circles, is often looked upon negatively.

But the Acton Redmen Junior Boys' basketball team's showing at Friday and Saturday's Woodlands Invitational tournament in Mississauga was viewed by coach Ron Birrell as "a good tuneup" for the stretch drive of the Halton high school season.

They opened the weekend with an impressive showing against Brampton's North Park — a 59-58 win on Friday night.

Clearly outskilled on Saturday, the Redmen first were blown out 62-37 by John Fraser — last year's tourney champions. Then, with wobbly legs, thanks to a depleted bench, the locals were outscored 75-47 by Lorne Park.

"I haven't seen a better team than John Fraser," compliments Birrell of the Streetsville school. His Redmen — 1-3 in league play — could wrap up a playoff spot with two of three wins.

"Against Port Credit's Lorne Park (Chris Young poured in 15 points), we simply didn't have the legs. It wasn't a problem with conditioning, we didn't have the bench (11 players)."

Friday's game was no cake-walk, as the Redmen were forced to run with North Park.

"They were intent on running us into the floor," Birrell recalls, "but it didn't work. The other coach was kind of perplexed."

Jamie Birrell led all Redmen with 49 points on the weekend, including 26 against North Park.
