Dear Paul:

SUBJECT: 1995 PRESIDENT'S CHALLENGE AWARD

I wish to extend my personal congratulations to you, one of the outstanding winners of the 1995 Chrysler Canada President's Challenge Award. You and your entire dealership team have demonstrated a commitment to be the very best, making you outstanding examples for your peers.

To be a winner of the President's Challenge means taking a leading role in your profession. It means exceeding customer expectations in many areas, including providing service and value that are second to none. It means addressing problems quickly and satisfactorily. It all adds up to making every transaction at your dealership a rewarding experience for your customers.

All of us at Chrysler Canada congratulate you upon your achievement and upon attaining the high standards you have set for yourselves and for others.
