

Drop-in program offers fun and friendship for families

ASSIC ALERT

Are you looking for activities that you and your children can enjoy together? Would you like an opportunity to meet other parents? Are your kids needing other children to play with? If you answered yes to any of these questions, perhaps you would enjoy attending the drop-in program at the Acton Parent-Child Resource Centre.

In addition to the drop-in program there is a toy lending library, a book resource library and caregiver theme kits. The Centre is located at 85 Wallace Street (The Band Hall). The drop-in program offers an informal and relaxed setting where you and your child can enjoy crafts, stories, songs and lots of play experiences. It's open Monday and Friday from 9:30 to 11:30 am and 1 to 3 pm and Wednesdays from 10:30 am to 2:30 pm. For more information call the Centre at 853-2574 or ASSIC at 853-3310.

National Volunteer Week:

This year National Volunteer Week is from April 21st to 27th. ASSIC would like to extend our thanks to all our dedicated volunteers who help to make it possible to provide services to the Acton community. You are very much appreciated!

Girls' volleyball fourth!

ROBERT LITTLE NEWS

BY TROY ETHIER & SAM MILLS

The girls' volleyball team went to Centennial school in Georgetown to compete in a volleyball tournament. They came in fourth, but they played excellent games. Way to go girls!

Constable Hannah came in to talk to the Grade 4s about anger. We interviewed three students in Mr. Kaiser's class: Neil Moon said, "You should think before you react." Caitlin Atherton said, "Control your temper and don't do damage." And Rena Dunn said, "You need a light and bell on your bike."

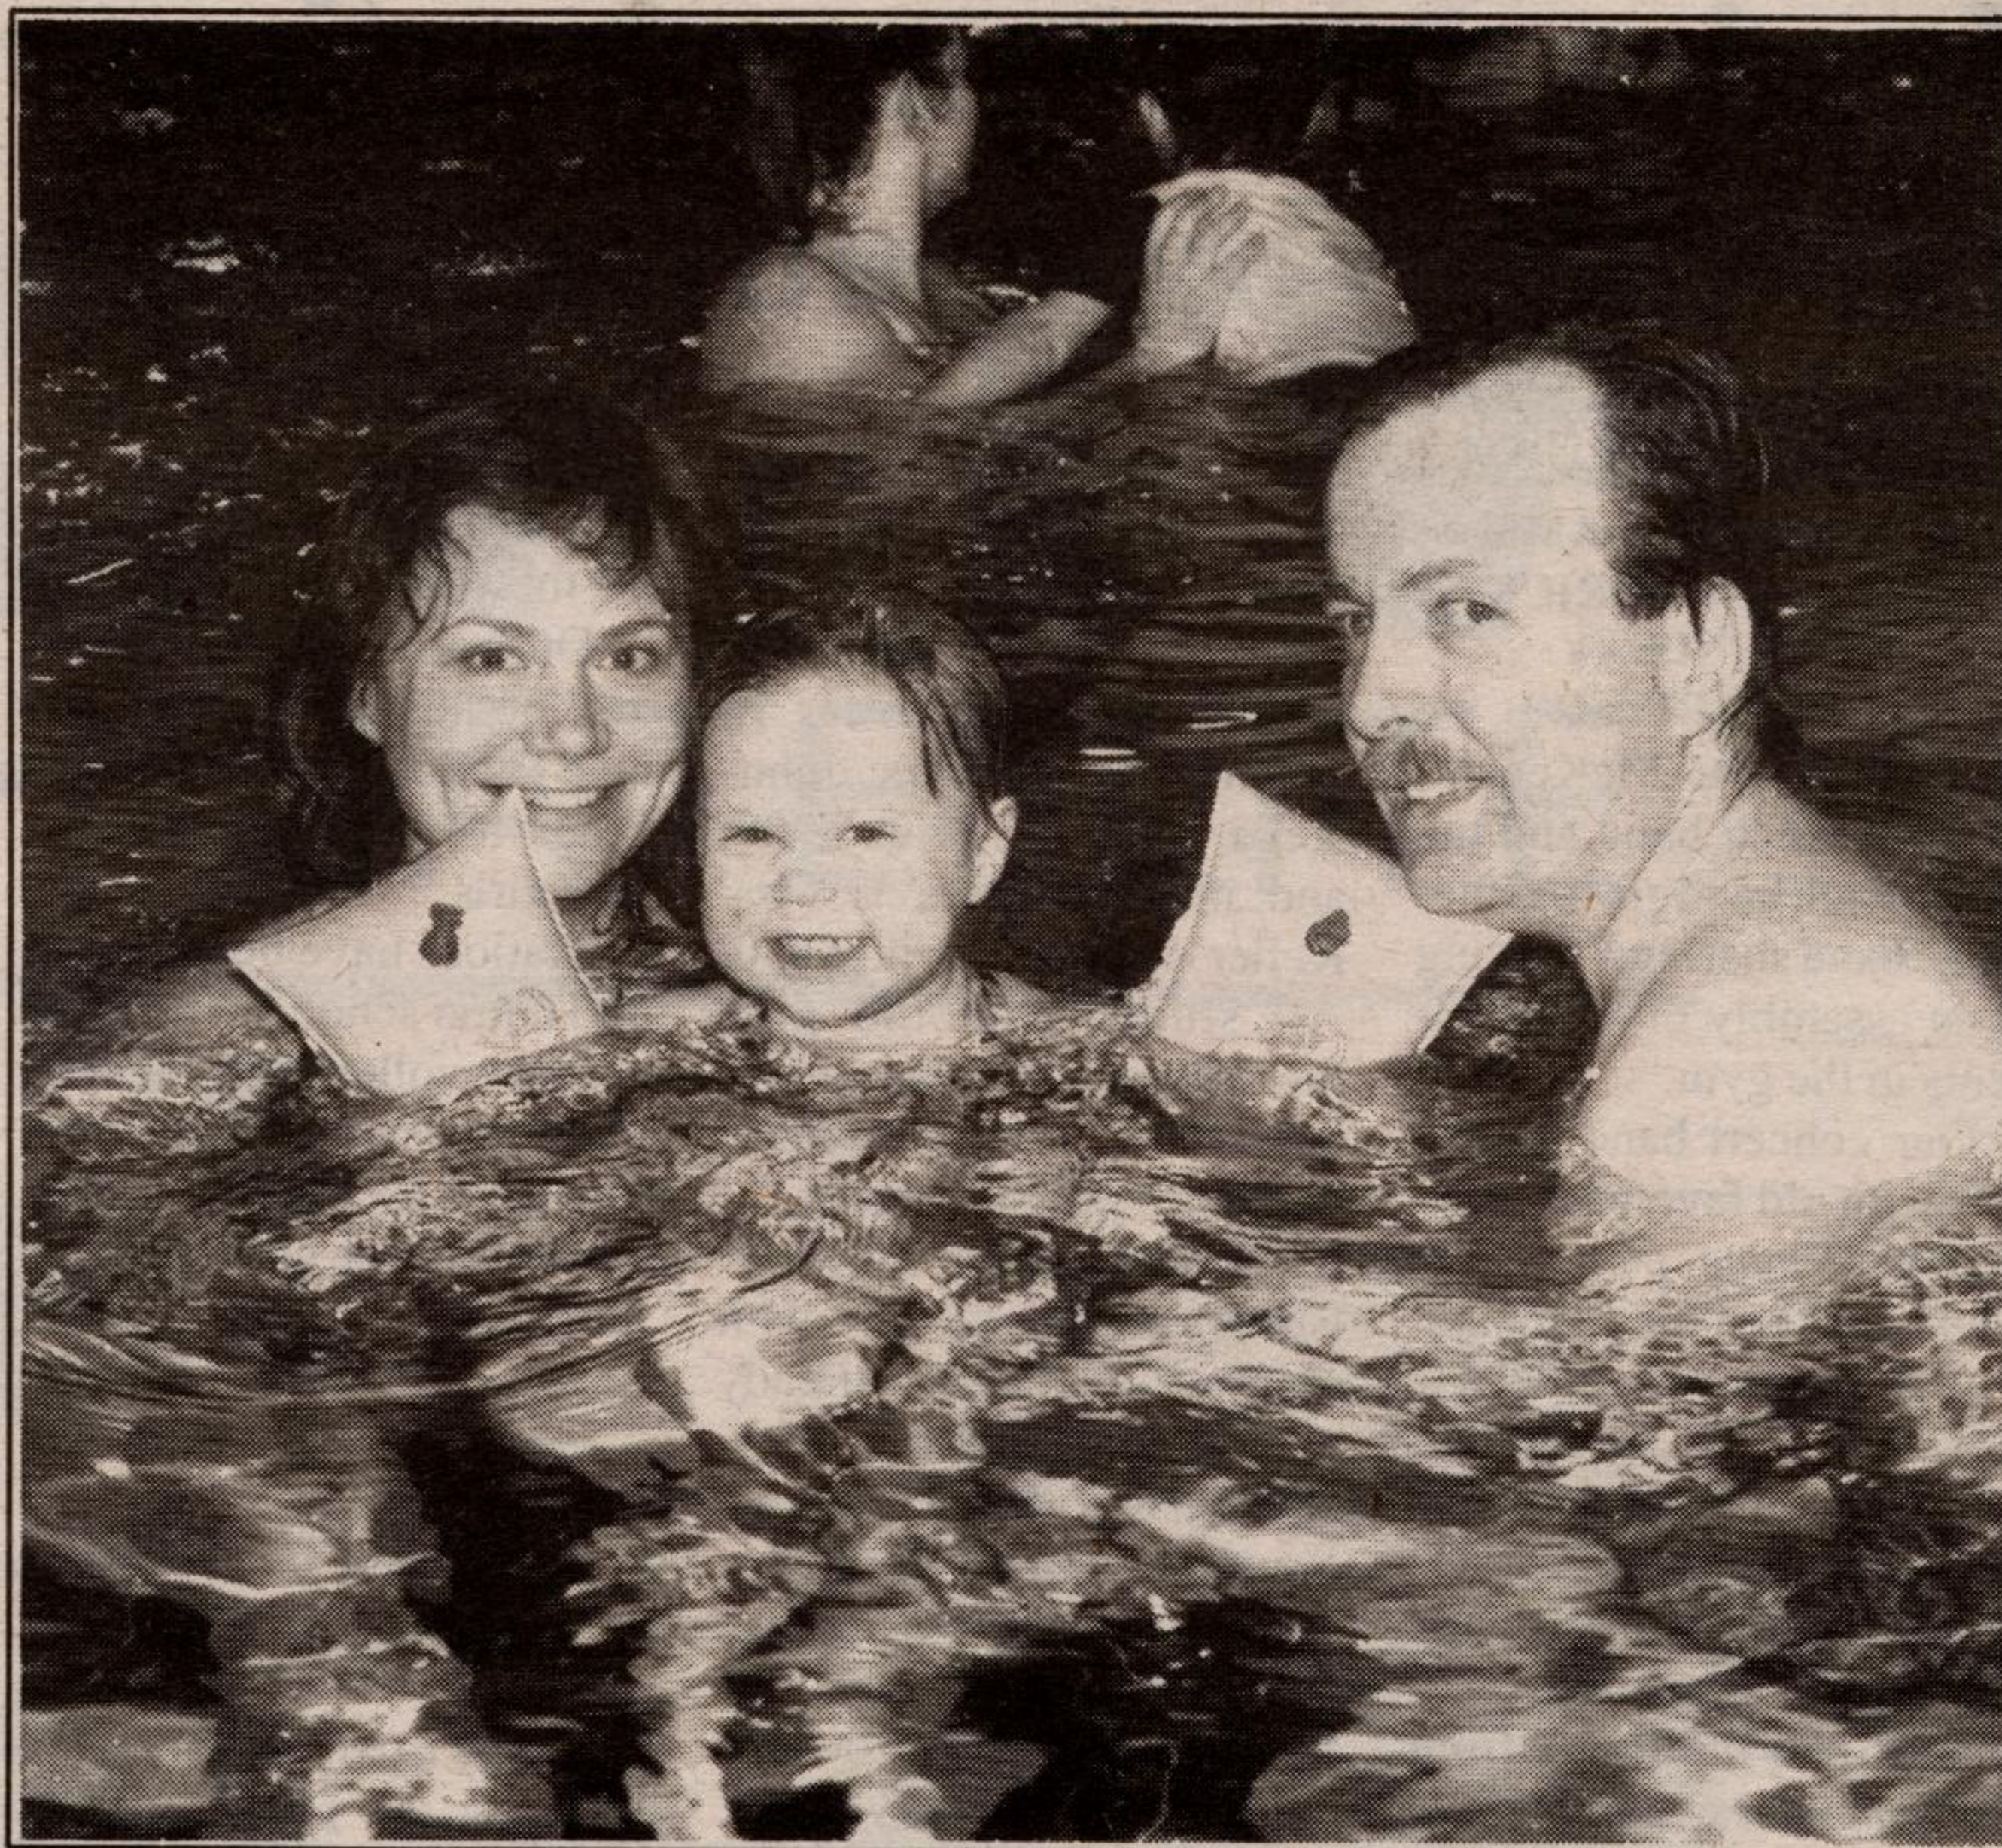

Artist Mrs. K. Friolet came into Mr. Kaiser's and Mrs. Spence's classes to do paper mache planets for the space unit they are doing. There were over 50 kids working on them. It was fun, loud and messy!

Our chess club will finish up on Friday. Mr. Sallami wishes to thank all of the students who participated and says that many children learned a lot about chess and had great fun.

Hundreds of kids enjoyed taking part in the games club. Thank you to Mrs. Cooney, Mrs. Denny and Mrs. Pentilla for organizing this weekly get-together.

Toastmasters contest

Special to The Tanner
Toastmasters has everyone heading for the hills... Halton Hills that is, for an evening of speech competition, door prizes and great entertainment.
