Fire fighters raise $3,000 for MD

Eramosa fire fighters raised $3,000 for the Muscular Dystrophy Association in their recent annual boot drive to raise funds for research for the disease.

"Previously the maximum was $2,400, so we did exceed our previous record," said Alan McDonald, volunteer fire fighter.

Six fire fighters stopped vehicles on Hwy. 7 on April 6 to collect donations in fire fighters' boots. In just two-and-a-half hours, their record-breaking amount of money was collected.

The Muscular Dystrophy Association is planning to make the boot drive an annual event on just one day for fire fighters across the country. Currently each fire department chooses its own day to conduct fundraising for the Association, a pet charity with fire fighters.

"It's a really good feeling when you do something like that to help someone," McDonald said.
