'New experience' for Marshall as head of coaches

AMHA still taking applications

Cliff Fletcher? He's got an easy job compared to Steve Marshall.

While the Toronto Maple Leaf G.M. has his hands full searching for a new bench boss for next season, his counterpart here in Acton is busy filling nine coaching positions with the Acton Minor Hockey Association Sabres.

And while Fletcher is taking his sweet time, Marshall even has a deadline: next Thursday evening. That's when the AMHA executive is expected to announce a slate of coaches for all nine teams for the 1996-97 season, from Novice through to Midget.

Marshall, 40, is the first-ever coaching coordinator for the AMHA, and he admits that "it'll be a new experience. The executive has been talking about creating this job for a couple of years, though"

Last season, Marshall coached the Atom 1 Sabres, who made it to the OMHA semi-finals before bowing out to Six Nations. However he's hanging up his whistle this winter, as he'll be busy with administrative duties.

"Basically I'll be overseeing and supporting the coaching staffs. I will be someone for the coaches to bounce ideas off during the season.

"My other goal is to develop a progressive system that will start with Novice 2 and continue through. I'm not going to tell people how to coach, but I'll set up a system for players to follow - especially in practice sessions."

Marshall, who is one of the more successful local coaches in recent years, is well-qualified for the job. He also has a OMHA softball championship title to his coaching credit.

"We already have applicants, but we're willing to look at anyone if they're interested and contact me before next Thursday (June 27).

Interested coaches can phone Marshall at 853-0155.

Grape Smugglers are Lions champs

The Acton Grape Smugglers are the Acton Lions Club softball champs after winning the Lion's eighth annual softball tourney at Prospect Park and McKenzie-Smith Bennett on the weekend.

Gary Plowman was named as the tourney's MVP and Troy McDougal was named most sportsman-like.

The Grape Smugglers edged last year's consolation winner, the Rockwood Grey Sox, to come out on top.

Last year's champs, the Georgetown Kinsmen, got past Brampton Lions to take the consolation prize.

Tyke Rams earn 5-5 draw with Fergus

The Acton Lions Club Novice Rams dropped a close 8-6 game to Fergus last week giving them a 2-2 season record.

With just nine players on the floor the Rams ran out of steam in the second period allowing Fergus to score five goals to their single marker to take a 6-3 lead into the third.

Acton rallied to make the score 7-6 before Fergus scored three and Ram Matt Lyons found the net twice.

Brett Manes had the other Ram's goal while Nick Newby had two assists. Single assists went to Brady Masters, Daine Kuiken-Rogers and Andrew Friolet.

The Acton Knights of Columbus Tyke Rams lost to Arthur 10-7 and earned a 5-5 tie with Fergus last week to give them a 2-2-1 record.

Kevin Deforrest scored a hat trick and an assist against Arthur while Greg Henry scored a pair of goals.

Braden Artem and Tory Dodge each had singles for Acton in the loss.

In the game with Fergus Justin Gibson and Artem each had a pair and Henry added a single. Michael Krasnay and Ryan O'Connell had assists.

The Halton Hills Lacrosse Day of Champions is Saturday (June 22) from 9 am until 7 pm at the Gordon Alcott Arena in Georgetown.
