

Wedding Bells!

Flowers have own meanings

There are few things on earth as well-appointed for the pursuit of romance as the diamond engagement ring and the bridal bouquet. To capture their timeless beauty, consider choosing flowers that coordinate with the colour and style of the bridal gown.

To find a florist, ask friends for recommendations or visit local florists and ask to see samples or pictures. Be ready to discuss your colour scheme, flower preferences and most importantly, the budget.

Many couples want their flowers to be more than just beautiful. If you want your flowers to have special meaning, consult the following list:

- Carnation = sweet, innocent
- Daffodil = regard and chivalry
- Gladiolus = love at first sight
- Honeysuckle = fidelity
- Lily = purity, innocence

- Lily-of-the-valley = happiness
- Orchid = love, beauty, fertility
- Rose = symbol of love
- Stephanotis = bride's good luck flower
- Tulip = perfect love
- Violet = modesty, faithfulness
