

Galda stars as Heartland Shipping downs Hornby 'A'

MINOR HARBALL

MIDGET

Chris Scully had the win and Derek Lockerbie the save as M&M Pro Sports beat Hornby 5-1 in Midget hardball at MSB diamond on June 28.

Scully allowed no hits for four innings while Lockerbie had a two-inning no score.

Marc Chiasson had three RBI and a double and made great catches behind the plate while Shaun Lockerbie had two RBI and a double and played well at shortstop.

Derek Lockerbie had a double while Mark Faseruk, Jimmy Dickinson and Jeff Miller had singles.

MOSQUITO

Jamie McGhie's triple and Jay Lalande's single and two RBI were not enough to help

Halton Power Line beat a tough Carlisle team in action in Carlisle on Wednesday. The final score was 8-3.

Heartland Shipping played one of their best games ever in Friday's 13-6 win over Hornby A at Prospect Park.

Chris Galda pitched three innings, allowing three runs and striking out two.

Chris's reflexes were great - catching a line drive at the knees to end the fourth frame.

Adam Burgess had a strong outing allowing one earned-run in the first and shutting Hornby down in the second.

Michael Meade, Mark Sinkgraven, Mike Kuipery and Nigel Williams all crossed the plate three times while Galda and Burgess each scored once.

The night before at Prospect Heartland lost 12-3 to Hornby B. Heartland loaded the bases several times but couldn't get clutch hits.

Heartland runs came off the bats of Meade, Derrick McKeown and Burgess. Sinkgraven went three for three.

Burgess pitched two innings striking out five batters and Galda went two innings striking out four batters.

Acton Remark Telecom is 9-1-0 on the Mosquito Select season following a pair of decisive wins last week.

In a 15-2 win over Kilbride at Prospect last Tuesday Troy Ethier had three Ks over two innings while Brock Spear had four strike-outs over two.

Ethier also had a hot bat, scoring four runs while Matt Dayman, Kyle Winters and Spear crossed the plate twice and Paul Vidic had one run and Peter Finnie had two RBI.

Remark continued their winning ways the next night in Campbellville.

Matt Bronizewski had his first start in the 16-3 win, pitching very effectively over three innings, striking out two and allowing just three runs; he also scored three runs.

Finnie knocked in four runs in the win, while Spear each plated three teammates. Ethier had another two RBI.

ROOKIE

Burke's Aluminum were unbeatable in their last two Rookie hardball outings, winning 20-8 over Brookville and 10-6 win over Acton II.

In the June 26 game in Brookville the Burke's bats were hot against the pitching machine and Stephen Gilbert and Tyler Knoepfli had triples and three singles each while Sean O'Donnell, Brad Ethier and Eric Lavallee each had two singles.

Ryan Winters had a single and a double, Michael Burke had two singles and a double and Dylan McPhail had three singles while Howie Jeffrey had a single and a triple.

In Burke's game Wednesday against Acton II Ryan Winters and Knoepfli each pitched well as did Gilbert, who made his debut.

Gilbert swatted a homer and both Ethier and Knoepfli had triples while teammate Sean O'Donnell had a double. Shawn Harkley had a single and Ryan Winters had a double and a single.

Burke's record is 6-3-0.

Acton Legion easily defeated Acton Lions Club 14-3 in Rookie hardball play at Prospect Park on Thursday.

Kyle Osbourn had a double for the Legion and Tommy Dawkins had a triple while Nick Ridler and Patrick Byrne were great on the mound.

For Acton Lions Dennis Hunak had a single and an RBI while Benjamin Bailie and Jimmy Berry had singles. Clark Sinclair had a sacrifice fly-RBI and Neil Armstrong was good on the mound.

GRASSHOPPER-TRAV.

Matthew Angell's two homers, three RBI and single helped Nellis Construction to a 16-8 win over Hornby in Grasshopper Travel action at Robert Little last Tuesday.

Thomas Harding, Anthony Kri and Ashley Burke all had hot bats with multiple hits, including triples.

Nicholas Glover had a single and a double while Cody Wilson had two RBI, a double and a single; Cheslea Harris had a single.

Kruk leads IGA to big win

MINOR SOFTBALL

PEEWEE GIRLS

Acton Curwood Packaging came out on the short end of a pair of games last week.

Curwood took a 14-5 loss in Rockwood last Tuesday.

Charla Banks had a three-run triple then stole home to score a fourth run while teammates Laurel Adams, Melissa Creasey and Toby Slack made outstanding defensive plays.

In Thursday's game with Ponsonby at Prospect Park, Curwood was shaded 19-18.

Samantha Schroeder and Lindsay Limamade fine catches.

ATOM GIRLS

Kylie Kruk displayed awesome pitching and had four RBI and a triple to lead Acton IGA over Puslinch 15-14 on Wednesday at Robert Little.

Sarah Berry had three RBI, a triple and a single while Amanda Nielsen was great on the mound and Ashley Fendley had a double.

Jennifer Haslem played a good offensive game and Lindsay McIntyre made a great snag at second base.

GRASSHOPPER

Good hitting and fielding was evident from both Rene's Flowers and MacKenzie-Chapman at Sir Donald Mann Park on Thursday.

Megan Fox had a single for Rene's while teammates

Billy Watterson and Jesse Weaver played well.

For MacKenzie-Chapman Jessica Blazenko, Derek Hopcraft and Evan Martin put in great efforts.

Brandyn McCarthy had a homer and showed great form in the outfield as the KFC Mighty Chickens took on Daniel Varanelli in T-Ball action at Sir Donald Mann last Tuesday.

Kyla Reid was great behind the plate and Rylan Parker showed solid hitting.

The KFC bats are getting strong, the outfield is starting to come together and the entire team is showing great spirit cheering each other on and making their coach proud.
