LADIES REC. LEAGUE

End-to-end action and good games by both Red Dog Cafe and Acton I ended with a 2-all tie in Ladies Recreational soccer action last Monday night in Acton.

Acton I players Sherry Townsend and Anita Masticci eached booted singles. Red Dog scorers were not submitted at press time.

The Red Dog team played very well, narrowly missing two points in the well-officiated encounter.

GIRLS UNDER-17

Acton blanked Erin 9-0 in Girls Under-17 soccer play at the Erin High School last Tuesday in a game that saw Acton's offence and defence finally come together on the same night.

Colleen Thompson led the Acton scoring with five goals, Katie Tuitman booted two markers, while Jennifer Crompton and Amanada Paton each had singles.

Great defensive moves were demonstrated by local players Ricki Petch, Trisha Edwards, Julie Diamond and Kerri Harrison.

Acton now sports a 4-3-0 record on the season.

GIRLS UNDER-15

Bruce Hood Travel doubled Milton II 8-4 in Girls Under-15 soccer in Milton on Thursday.

The game included lots of good passing and scoring by everyone including Erin Douglas and Eva Sitarz who each scored twice, while singles were booted by Jamie Campbell, Amanada Burgan, Jennifer Norman and Chrissy Pereira.

Other noteworthy players for the local side included Caroline Seeds and Chrissy Goldrich.

Bruce Hood Travel is now 3-4-1 on the season.

BOYS UNDER-13

Acton A&S Engraving dropped a 3-2 decision to Erin-Hillsburgh in Boys Under-13 soccer action on Thursday evening.

A&S goals came from Mike Van Den Hoek and Jessie Dunn while Shawn Dyke and goalkeeper Andrew Draper played strong games for the local side.

On July 2 A&S defeated Rockwood 6-4 with Mark Boycott and Dunn each scoring twice and teammates Dyke and Van Den Hoek each booting singles.

In that match Darryl Wright and Joe Douglas played good games, according to Acton coaches.

GIRLS UNDER-13

Holly Goddard found the net five times to led Bev Gray Design Services to a resounding 10-1 win over Hillsburgh-Erin on Wednesday at MSB.

Shannon Gray had a hat trick while Meagan Brown and Chelsea Young each had single markers for Acton.

The win was Bev Gray's second in a row, giving the team a 2-6-1 record on the Girls Under-13 soccer season.

BOYS UNDER-11

MacMillan's and Acton Building Contractors battled to a cold, wet 3-all tie at MSB last Monday in Boys Under-11 soccer action.

MacMillan's player Travis Medland was singled out for his solid defensive game, while teammate Blake Martin came up with a big effort between the posts.

Mark Boycott had two markers and Jesse Sparkes booted a single for MacMillan's.

Paul Sharples had two of ABC's goals while Blaine Murray's single score made it three.

Daniel Pezzack and Peter Cobb both played strong games for ABC.

Wednesday night at the Elizabeth Drive field ABC took a hard-fought 3-2 decision from the visiting Puslinch squad.

Paul Sharples scored twice with help from Murray and Neil Moon, while Corey Burgan scored once on a penalty kick.

GIRLS UNDER-11

Kasia Sitarz and Alicia Rosa each had a pair of goals for Leathertown Lumber in a Girls Under-11 game against Milton III last Tuesday night at MSB.

Teammate Rena Dunn had a single marker and the final score was 5-

1 for Leathertown.

Nicole Dawkins and Emma Goddard both had some good, hard kicks and Beth Clayton played a good game in goal.

Leathertown dropped a 4-1 game to Milton II in Milton on July 2.

Sera Stinson had Leathertown's lone goal in this game.

Goals by Laura Detlor and Jessica Dunn led Denny's Insurance to a 2-0 win over Personal Secretarial Services in Girls Under-9 soccer play last Wednesday evening at the MSB soccer pitch.

Coaches reported that Laura Vickery and Amanda Pettitt both had strong games for Denny's.

The noteworthy players for Personal Secretarial Services included Kelly LaRose, Ainsley Schrader and goalies Kim Galvin and Erin Baumeister.

BOYS UNDER-9

Leathertown Feed poured on the steam in the second half of a Boys Under-9 soccer game last Tuesday at MSB and came up with a convincing 4-1 win.

Craig Kirkwood and Treth MacDougall eached scored a pair while teammates Brian Moore and Christopher Payne played well in a game that was tied until the second half.

Kyle Bodi had Acton Vet's lone marker.

Guelph OPP handed Andy's Restaurant a 4-1 loss in Boys Under-9 soccer play last Tuesday at the Rockmosa field.

Jordan Larose had Andy's lone marker while goalie Braeden Halls made lots of fantastic saves. Andy's coaching staff praised James Lee, who played hard and fast.

UNDER-7

Hilary Selihar scored the Holland Shop's lone goal in a 2-1 loss to Blooms Away Flower Shop in Under-7 action last Monday at MSB.

Battling rain and a shortage of players, Holland Shop players continue to show marked improvement in their quest for fun, including Emma Jolly and Adam Grabauskas.

Unfortunately Blooms Away's report was not submitted.
