NEWS SHORTS

Foolish prank

Two Acton boys who fired cap guns in and outside the olde Hide House on Saturday were cautioned by police and released to their parents.

At 5:10 p.m. the boys, aged 13 and 14, entered the olde Hide House and one boy fired off his cap gun several times.

The boys then left the store and the other one fired his cap gun outside.

A store employee followed the boys and flagged down a passing police officer who seized the cap guns and cautioned the boys for mischief, warning them that if they'd pulled the same stunt in Toronto, where store keepers often keep guns under the counter, they could have been dead.

In the hot seat!

Fire fighters were called to a building on Mill Street East last Friday at 8:55 pm after someone set fire to a chair. There was no damage to the building.

Though there are no suspects, there are reports that some youngsters were seen in the area prior to the fire.
