

Lakeview Villa residents enjoying their summer

LAKEVIEW VILLA NEWS

BY ISABEL MacDONALD

We had quite a busy time here at Lakeview Villa lately. On June 29, the tenants of 17 Elizabeth Dr. each donated items for a lawn sale, which was held on the front patio of our building. It was a very successful sale as it proved to be a profitable day for the tenants' association.

On July 4, a bus trip was organized for the building. We loaded the bus at 9:30 am and headed off for the day. The first place the bus took us was through the Forks of the Credit. This was a beautiful view for us. From there we visited an art gallery in Caledon and then headed off to Orangeville Theatre where we saw the play The Shooting of Dan McGrew. This show kept us well entertained as we heard some great singing and watched a bit of dancing. Listening to conversations on the bus, one could conclude that the seniors from Acton just spent a very enjoyable and fun-filled day.

On July 7, tenants of Elizabeth Drive once again gathered and participated in the Strawberry Social, which was held in the building's common room. There were salads, cold meats, strawberries and good company. The food was fabulous and the strawberries, which were spread over angel food cake, ice cream and whipping cream, added the perfect finish.

Following dinner, a musical game was played which preceded card bingo. The tenants who attended the social had a good time and conversation was accompanied by lots of laughter and fun.

On July 11, we had a barbecue in our backyard, which was organized by our Support Service Co-ordinator Kim, who works for the Supportive Housing Program run through ASSIC. We ate hot dogs, hamburgers, salads and ice cream cones for dessert. We enjoyed the sunshine as it had been so long in coming. As well, the fresh air was nice and just being able to eat outside was a treat. A summer student working with ASSIC brought his guitar and we had a sing-song with him. To finish the fun-filled day we had a competitive game of bocci ball. We laughed hard while being amazed and impressed with ourselves that we still have some athletic talent.

On lady, 84-years-young, was caught saying, "If my family could see me playing bocci ball, I would no longer get the extra attention that I'm receiving now."

To conclude, we still have the opportunity to attend a weekly exercise class, lunches every other week and bingo nights. Summer is slowly winding down and with the fall approaching, we'll have new activities to plan for and look forward to.
