THE SOCCER REPORT

Andy's A Proud Sponsor of Acton Minor Soccer 853-0300

GIRLS UNDER-17

In a nailbiter, Acton fell to Bram United 2-1 July 23 in Brampton.

Acton opened the scoring in the first half with a goal from Colleen Thompson. But a couple of mistakes and mixed up plays by Acton proved costly as Brampton rallied, scoring twice, and hung on.

The loss squares Acton's record at 4 wins-4 losses for the season.

Rosie DaFreedes, Rachael Andrews, Amanda Paton and Amy French logged excellent efforts in a losing cause.

BOYS UNDER-15

The going was tough for Acton Musicland last week. Despite outmanning their opposition, Milton #3 11-players to nine, Musicland was only able to muster a 3-3 tie last Monday night in Milton.

The play was up and down in the first half with both club's defensive play taking center stage. And with only a few good scoring chances between them the score was tied 1-1 at the half.

Play opened up after the break with Acton scoring first. Andrew Watson's goal gave Musicland a 2-1 lead. But moments later Milton tied the score.

Acton responded, taking the lead for the third time in the contest, when Matt Morrow scored. However, with time running out Milton struck again, on a freekick from just out side the Acton goal crease which appeared to be well-defended but somehow found the back of the net, for the 3-3 tie.

Shawn Dyke scored in the first half to give the good guys an early 1-0 lead.

GIRLS UNDER-15

In yet another excellent game between Milton #3 and Acton Bruce Hood Travel, the teams played to a hard fought 2-2 draw.

Scoring for Acton were Erin Douglas and Chrissy Periera with Melanie Sherren and Emma Douglas counting assists.

Jennifer Norman had a great second half in the Acton goal while Ashleigh Bunt and Chrissy Goldrick played solid games.

The tie dropped Acton's record to 5-3-2.

BOYS UNDER-13

Shawn Dyke and Taylor Seeds each tallied two goals as A&S Engraving doubled up Rockwood 4-2 July 23.

Goalkeeper Jamie Stevenson played a strong game for A&S, particularly in the second half when he was called upon to make several solid stops.

Blake Martin and Shane Stewart also played strong games for the winners.

GIRLS UNDER-13

What goes up must come down. And that was the case for Bev Gray Design Services last week. They easily got by Ballinafad 7-0 last Wednesday night in Ballinafad before succumbing to Acton #3 4-1 Thursday night at McKenzie-Smith.

The girls played a strong game both nights but were unable to capitalize on chances in front of the Acton #3 net.

Everyone on the team played well. Amanda Johnson played strong defense, while Megan Deltor and Lisa Wood excelled in mid-field. Shannon Gray, Holly Goodard and Amy Inscoc shone upfront.

Scoring versus Ballinafad were Goddard with four goals while Gray added a pair and Wood had a single marker.

The following night Bev Gray Design Services' lone goal came courtesy of Goodard.

Erin Greenfield, Rachael Turner and Manda Waples each counted a goal and assist for Acton #3. Kristen Kilgour scored the fourth goal with Adrienne Van Egmond garnering an assist.

Key to the win was a forward line for Acton #3 who moved the ball well.

Meighan McIntyre was solid at halfback while Courtney Smallwood, Holly Petkoff and Jennifer Morin played well on defense. Justine Selihar, in the first half, and Becky Taylor, in the second, had great games in goal.

BOYS UNDER-11

Acton Building Contractors' Neil Moon and Rockwood's Dustin Gamble were the scoring heroes July 22 at the Elizabeth Street Field as each scored five times for their respective teams. However, it was Beth Clayton, scoring twice, who provided the difference in a 7-5 Acton win.

Paul Sharples chipped in with six assists while Clayton added one helper.

Sam Splinter and Peter Cobb made excellent defensive tackles to preserve Acton's win.

MacMillan's pushed aside Acton Super Submarine 5-2, July 22 at McKenzie-Smith.

Matthew Freckleton scored Super Sub's only goal of the game. Nevertheless, David Ellis, Kyle Marshall and Joe Douglas has super games for the sub shop in defeat.

MacMillan's goal scorers were unavailable.

GIRLS UNDER-11

On July 23 in Ballinafad, Leathertown Lumber hammered the homeside to the tune of 5-1.

Leading the way for Leathertown was the splendid splinter herself, Samantha Splinter, who scored a hat-trick. Beth Clayton and Emma Goddard added solo markers for the winners.

The whole team played well with Leanne Marcoux and Bevin Joyner leading Leathertown's defensive charge. Good games were also turned in by Rina Dunn and Michelle Howe.

BOYS UNDER-9

Acton Leathertown Feed came up on the short end of the stick July 23 at MSB, a 2-0 loss to Guelph.

Acton goalkeeper Christopher Payne played an excellent game in net to keep his side close. Also playing well were Josh Shabaga and Joseph Luty.

Herrington Printing opened the week in impressive fashion with a 5-0 drubbing of Grand Valley July 23 in Grand Valley.

Davin Pole notched the hat-trick for the winners with Brett Kirtin and Kenneth Wenzel adding single markers.

Two days later, Herrington had a tougher go of it settling for a 2-2 draw against a very game squad from Andy's Family Restaurant.

Josh Essiembre and Jordan LaRose scored for Andy's while Wenzel and Michael Kellas added goals for Herrington. Pole continued his strong play this season with a pair of assists.

GIRLS UNDER-9

Denny's Insurance had their policy revoked with a 4-1 loss to Milton last Wednesday night in Milton.

Heather Ellis scored Acton's only goal. Nevertheless, despite the score Amanda Pettitt and Sarah Iantarno did yeoman's work in the net.

Diana Drechel scored twice for Personal Secretarial Services in their 5-2 thrashing of Halton Credit Union last Wednesday night at MSB.

Also scoring for Personal was Myla Donaldson, Megan Joyner and Kelly LaRose. Trisha Bingeman, Melissa Price, Danielle Morin and Donaldson chipped in with assists.

Marissa Kidd on a penalty kick scored Halton's lone goal. Kaleigh Driscoll and Karly MacPherson played well in a losing effort.

MINI-SQUIRT UNDER-7

Tuitman's Garden Centre continued to show great improvement in their battle with Holland Shop, 0-0 draw July 22 at MZB.

Of note for Tuitman's were goalkeepers Cindy Boehringer and Tyler Bandy, Forwards Rebecca Macpherson, Amber Nicolson and Drew Brackman, and Defender Erin Dingwall.

Strong efforts were turned in by Gordon Mckeon, Mathew Denny and Alannah Bowes for Holland Shop.

In a game of well-matched teams, Acton Town Milk battled Rockwood Pamper Me Pet Foods to 1-1 draw.

The game was scoreless until the second half when Jeff Johnson scored for Acton. But Rockwood fought back and Chris Legge scored to knot the game at one.

It was the best game of the year for both squads.

Goalies Kyle Tulk and Reiner Schmidt, as well as, Clayton Schatti and Robyn Spiers played well for Acton.

Meanwhile, Acton Pharmacy, on a goal by Kyle Pelow, outlasted Blooms Away Flower Shop 1-0 July 22 in Acton.

And to close out last weeks action, Goalies Justin Black and Katelyn Price were 'red hot' in backstopping Blue Springs Flowers to a 2-0 shut-out win over Rockwood Braden Homes Ltd..

Curtis Stoehr and Jessica Blazenko scored to provide the margin of victory for Blue Springs.
