BOYS UNDER-17

John Routledge scored a hat-trick to lead Acton Big Scoop to a 4-1 win over Georgetown I, Aug. 12 at Acton High.

Peter Sitarz also scored for the homeside who dominated their opposition from the opening whistle. Bobby McDougall had three assists for the winners while Ben Muggridge added a single helper.

GIRLS UNDER-17

The news wasn't quite so good for Acton against their Georgetown neighbours, a night later in Georgetown, as they came up on the short end of an 8-2 decision.

Scoring for Acton were Erin O'Leary, her first of the year, and Colleen Thompson. Brooke Lindsay returned to the lineup and looked good after being forced out of last week's game against Caledon with an injured left knee. Other noteworthy Acton performances were turned in by Kerri Harrison, Rachael Andrews and Julie Diamond.

The loss drops the girls' record to 4-7-0 for the season.

BOYS UNDER-15

In ideal playing conditions, Acton Musicland had a less than ideal result, dropping a 4-1 decision to Georgetown, Aug. 12 at the Alcott Field in Georgetown.

The home side dominated play throughout the first half, jumping out to an early 2-0 lead. The score might have been more if not for the play of Acton goalkeeper Travis Stewart who came up big on a couple of occasions.

It was more of the same in the second half with Georgetown attacking and Acton defending. Despite some outstanding defensive plays from Matt Dyck and Phil Goy, Georgetown added a couple more goals. Meanwhile, Acton continued to have difficulty mustering any consistent offensive pressure.

Once again, a lack of players told the tale for an Acton team. Musicland had to go the entire game without any substitutes, dressing only 10 players, while Georgetown with 14 players were able to substitute liberally throughout the contest thus keeping fresh legs on the field. When Matt Cripps, who scored Acton's lone goal, recieved a red card late in the game the visitors' fate was sealed.

But there were no excuses by Acton afterwards; Georgetown simply played a much better game, staying in their positions, attacking the ball and passing the ball crisply.

GIRLS UNDER-15

After a couple of tough weeks, Bruce Hood Travel returned to the winning column, pounding Milton II 10-1, Thursday night at Brian Best Field in Milton.

The offensive outburst for Acton was keyed by Kristy Goy, Jennifer Norman and Erin Douglas who scored two goals each. Teammates Eva Sitarz, Jessie Brown, Amanda Bergan and Emma Douglas got in on the act scoring singles for the winners who saw their record improve to 4-7-2 for the 1996 campaign.

Jamie Campbell and Tonya Ward also chipped in with excellent games for Acton.

BOYS UNDER-13

There were more goals in boys under-13 play as Acton A&S Engraving blasted Erin/Hillsburgh 8-5, Aug. 13 in Erin.

Leading the way for the good guys were Jesse Dunn and Mike Van den Hoek with two goals each. Taylor Seads, Shawn Dyke, Stephen Boychuk and Shawn Gobin rounded out the scoring.

GIRLS UNDER-13

Meighan McIntyre scored on a penalty shot to give Acton III a narrow 1-0 win over Fergus, Aug. 14 in Fergus.

Aside from McIntyre's heroics, Acton got excellent play from defenders Jennifer Morin and Courtney Smallwood, and midfielder Rachel Turner.

The loss was Fergus' second of the season, both at the hands of Acton III.

BOYS UNDER-11

MacMillan's grabbed three out of a possible four points last week in league action with a 4-2 win over Acton Super Submarine on Aug. 12 and two nights later a hard fought 2-2 draw with Puslinch. Both games were played at McKenzie-Smith.

Against Puslinch, Jesse Sparkes ignited the MacMillan's offensive attack scoring both goals, while on the defensive side of things Adam Cripps and Dylan Medland led the home side.

Forward Tyler Veness was the difference versus Super Sub, scoring twice and having an all-around strong game in MacMillan's two-goal win.

Sparkes and Mark Boycott also scored for the winners who got great games from Andrew Moddle and Robert Lockhurst.

The ever dependable Mike Rudat scored twice for Super Sub who also got great games from Gil Douglas, Derek Mandy, David Ellis and Chris Golden.

GIRLS UNDER-11

Emma Goddard scored twice as Leathertown Lumber thumped Milton I 6-1, Aug. 13 in Milton.

Beth Clayton, Renna Dunn, Samantha Splinter and Sara Stinson also scored for the winners who got a good effort from Nicole Dawkins who split her time between the net and midfield. Judy Robinson also turned in a splendid effort patrolling the Leathertown defence.

Acton Dave's Home Service took it on the chin, dropping a 7-0 decision to Milton IV, Aug. 13 in Acton.

Acton were forced to play the first-half against a much stronger team shorthanded due to player absences.

They turned their play up a notch in the second half.

Despite the lopsided result, Katie Banks and Lynn Watson turned in strong defensive games for Dave's.

BOYS UNDER-9

Andy's Restaurant earned a hard fought split in last week's action, edging Grand Valley II 2-1, Aug. 13 at MSB before dropping a 5-0 decision to a strong Rockwood Guelph O.P.P. squad Thursday night at Rockmosa.

In their early week win, the restaurateurs were paced by Joshua Essiembre who scored two-goals. Elias Frecchette and Clarke Buchanan also chipped in strong efforts.

Two nights later despite a terrific effort by the entire team, Acton came up short against Rockwood. Acton's Matthew Kuffel and Spencer Veness had solid games in a losing effort.

For Rockwood, Jessie Gamble scored two, with singles coming from Matthew O'Holloran, Michael Bushbeck and Dean Greatcrax.

B.J. Purton scored a hat-trick to lead Rockwood Firefighters to a 7-1 shellacking of Herrington Printing, Thursday night at MSB.

Rounding out the winners' scoring were Geoff Baklarz with a pair, Ben Jameson and Mike Christie.

Mike Kellas scored the lone Acton goal with Davin Pole drawing the assist.

In a close and physical game, Grand Valley had the bigger biceps taking a 3-1 win over Leathertown Feed, Aug. 13 in Grand Valley.

Craig Lockwood scored for Acton while Derek Rauwerda and Clarke Murray chipped in with strong efforts.

GIRLS UNDER-9

Denny's Insurance had their policy cancelled with a 4-1 loss to Milton, Thursday night in Milton.

Leading the way for Acton were Ashley Masters who scored her first goal of the season and Sarah Iantorno who was rock solid in the nets. Laura Vickery, Laura Detlor and Courtney Moddle also had solid games for Acton in a losing cause.

MINI-SQUIRT

David Antonini scored three times to pace Acton Town Milk to a 3-0 shutout win of Tuitman's Garden Centre, August 12 at MSB.

Goalkeepers Kyle Tulk and Nicholas Jordan shared the shutout win for Town Milk with Jeffrey Somerville, Cameron Boychuk and Rachael Amirault chipping in solid efforts.

For Tuitman's, Ashley MacPherson and Tyler Bandy had excellent games, as did, goalkeepers Michael McConnell, Drew Backman and Brydon Pole.

In an exciting match, the Acton Tanner and the Holland Shop battled to a tough 0-0 draw, Aug. 12 at MSB.

The Tanner held the edge in play in the first half with Todd Speakman and Luke Gibbons coming close on
