

Your LETTERS

Successful first!

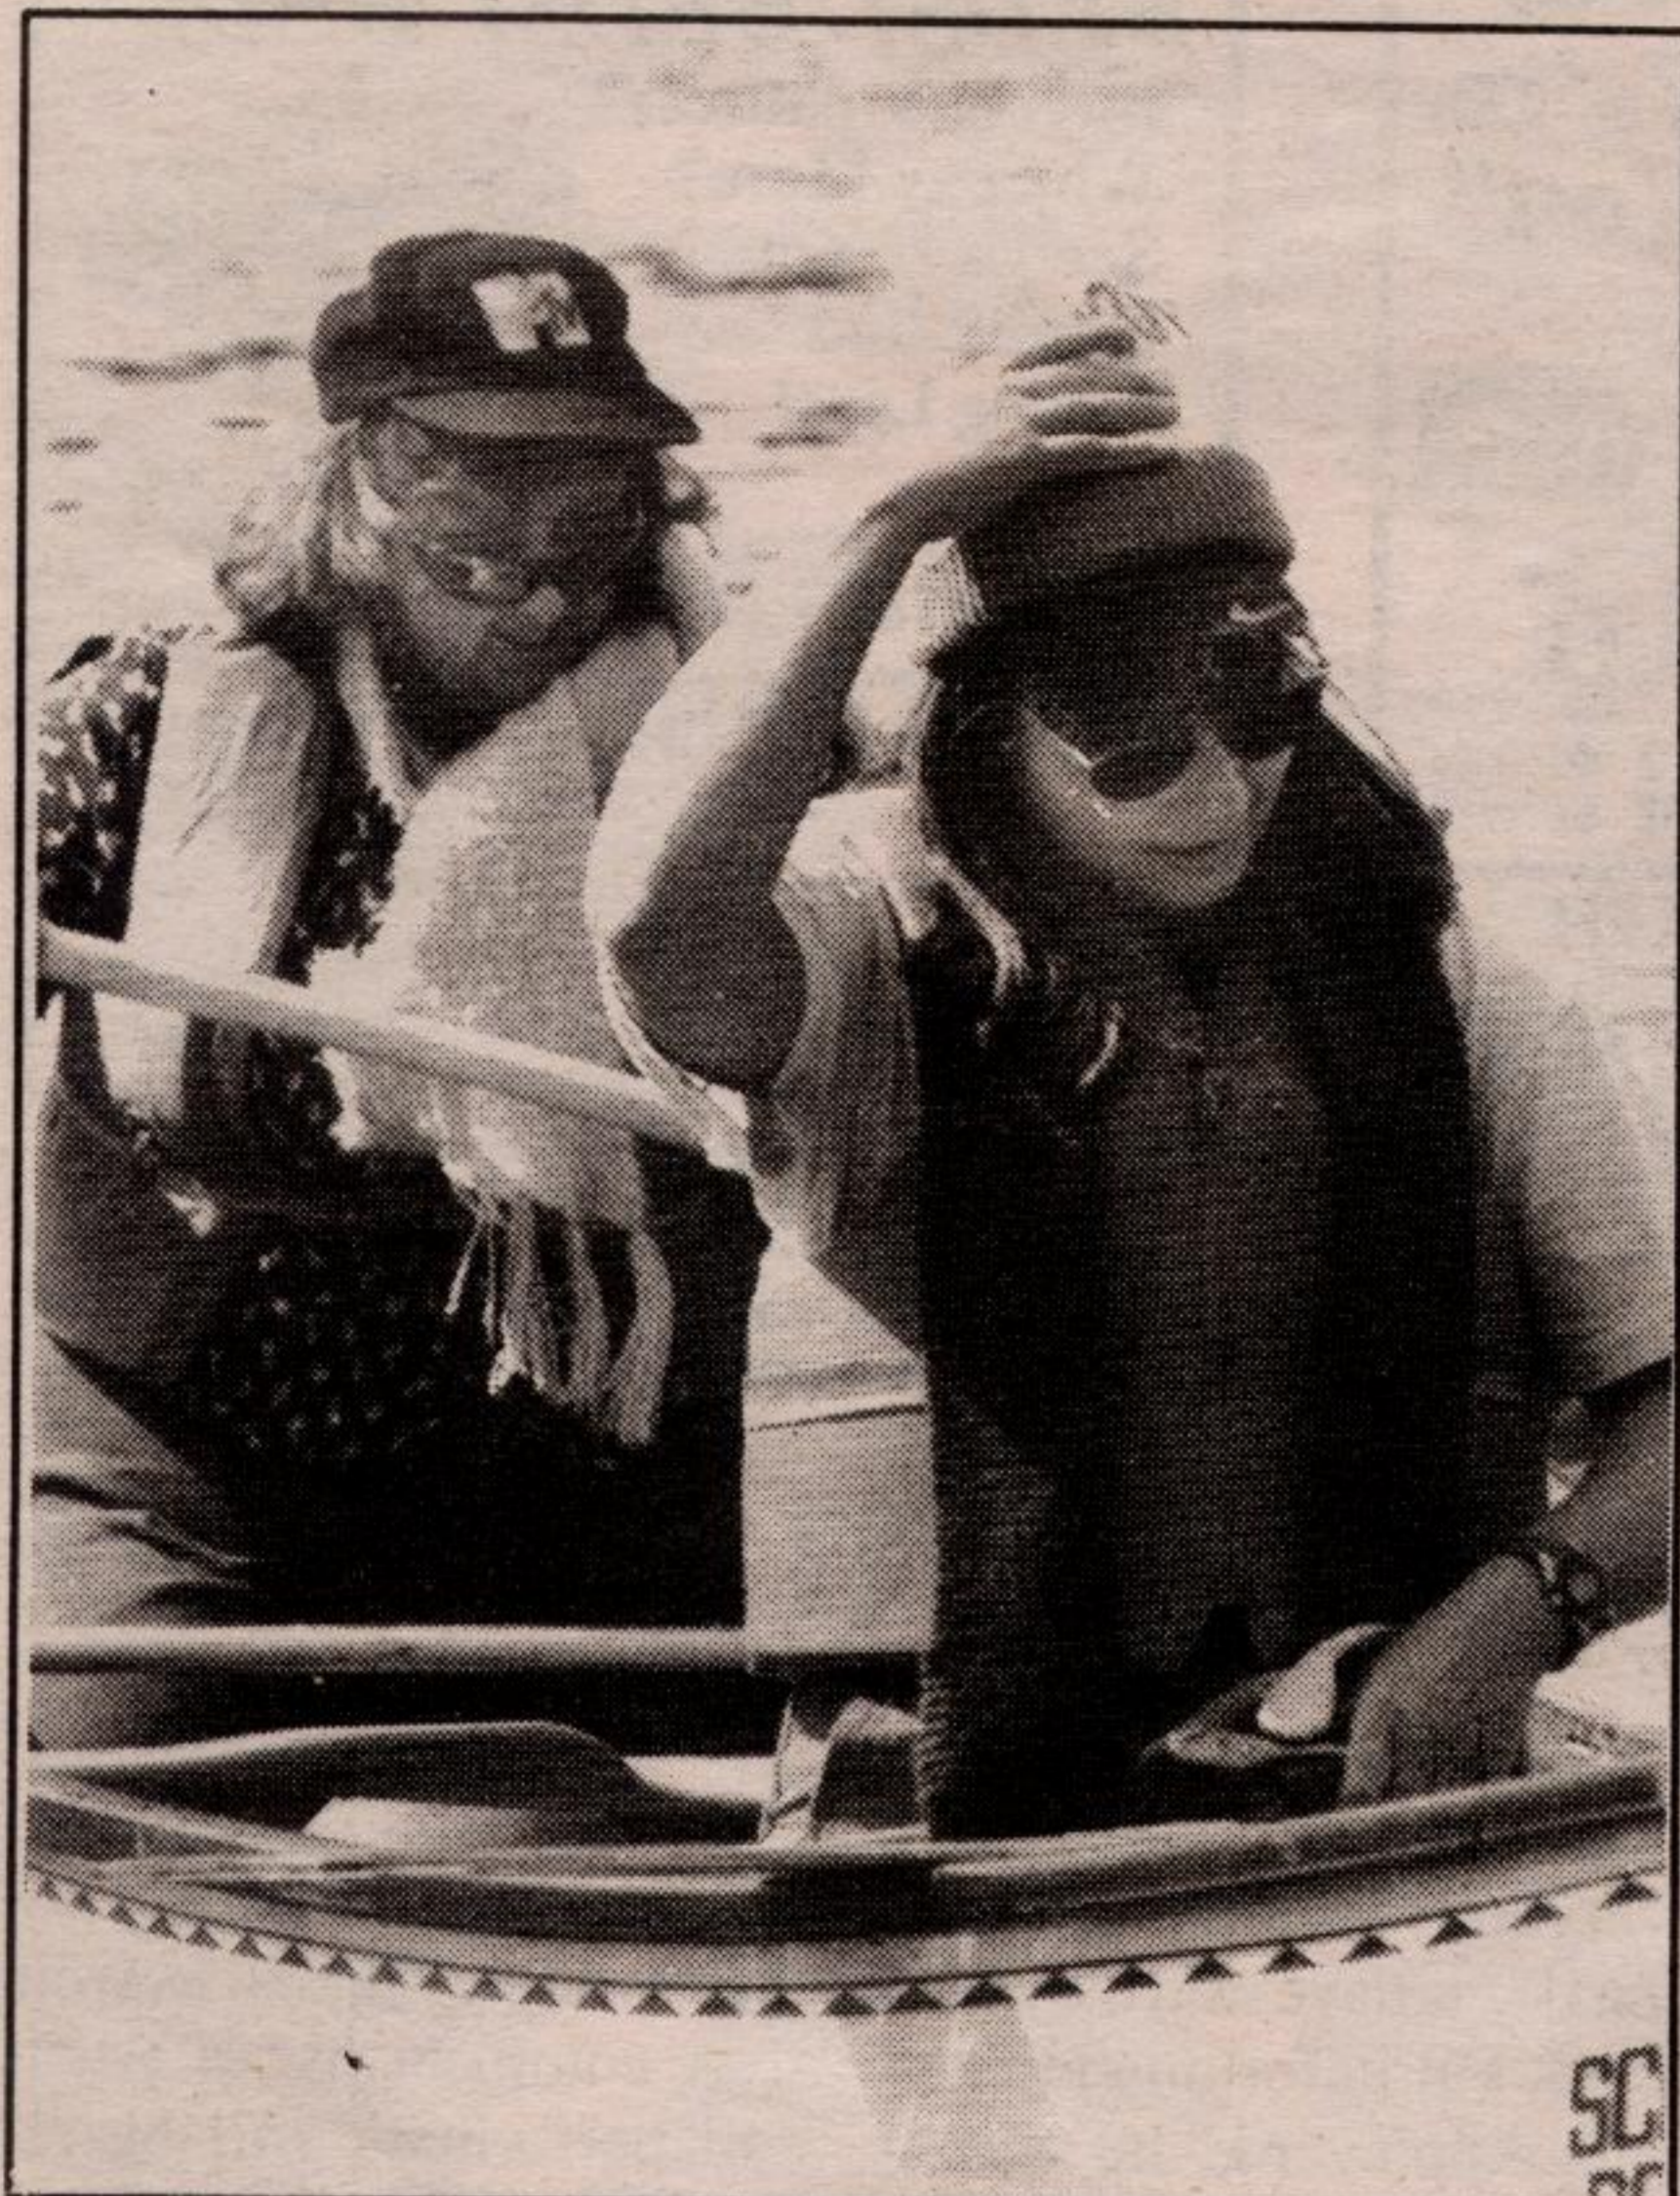

To the Editor,
As my first year as the Acton Agricultural Society's parade chair draws to a close, it is my pleasure to say it was a success.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who participated in the 1996 Acton Fall Fair parade by giving their time and energy to make the parade outstanding. I hope you will return next year to make it even better!

Though they were all terrific, first prize goes to the Acton Community Gardens float; second prize to B.M. Roszell (the clown on a bike); and third prize to the Acton Kinsmen.

Congratulations to the winners, and my thanks to all.

*Michael J. Arnott, Chair
Fall Fair Parade*

CAN YOU CANOE? Tanner I team members were all dressed up and ready to paddle during the second annual Crazy Canoe Race. Although reporter Frances Niblock and copy editor Joanne Stevenson made a valuable contribution to their team, Peter Zions Construction took home the first place prize. (Eve Martin photo)

'FAIR' FRIENDS: The petting zoo was a big hit during Education Day at the Fair. Sera Stinson makes a new friend with a llama. (Eve Martin photo)

GREAT JUMP! Tim Urleckebasch shows good form during the horse jumping competition on the final day of the Fall Fair. (Dale Kentner photo)

Acton's 83rd Fall Fair
*Just a few images to explain why it's
"one of the best little fairs in Ontario!"*

RIDES, RIDES, RIDES! The midway proved to be an attraction to many as thrill-seekers lined up for the ferris wheel and the topsy-turvy Zipper. (Dale Kentner photo)

GREAT LOOK! Acton BIA member Dan Dolliver won for his part in a dress-up exercise during a friendly competition between the Acton and Georgetown Business Improvement Areas. (Dale Kentner photo)

The Shop Acton Coupon booklet distributed to Acton and area residents in July featured free draws and coupons from nine Acton businesses. Congratulations to Jane Tailfefer, winner of a maple rocking chair from Halton Hills Furniture; Mrs. B. Terry, winner of the steak dinner hamper from Acton IGA; Edward Couture, winner of a gas barbecue from Acton Food-land; Cathy Munday, winner of an entertainment package every month for a year from Power Entertainment and Pearl Wilson, winner of a weekend away from Bruce Hood Acton Travel. The grand prize winner of a $500 shopping spree in downtown Acton, drawn at the Fair, was Donelda Ferguson, pictured above with Dan Dolliver, Tim McElhone and John McNabb. (Eve Martin photo)