Community Policing
Community Policing involves feedback to the police from members of the community. About 7 years ago I met with several members of the community and requested their help for myself and the Halton Regional Police Service in meeting the needs of the Acton community. The goal of the Halton Regional Police Service is to provide community minded police service. I believe that over these last 7 years, with the assistance of the Acton Community Consultation Committee, this goal has been reached but we can continue to improve by working together.

The people who make up the Acton Consultation Committee are from all walks of life. They are people who have knowledge of the community and want to help provide direction for community policing.

The number of citizens on the committee fluctuates, and at the present time there is a need for new members. Meetings are held about once every 2 months and are very informal. If you are interested in joining this committee please call Constable Riddle at 853-2050.
