BANTAM 2

The Bruce Hood Travel Sabres keep rolling along as they remain undefeated this season with two more victories last week.

Last Wednesday Acton traveled to Grand Valley and squeaked out a 3-2 victory, thanks in part to the acrobatics of goalie Robert Morris. Jordan Zukauski's unassisted tally with 2:44 left was the deciding factor.

Defenseman David Metcalfe opened the scoring in the first period while Stephen Monaghan fed Captain Jason Peart for an early third frame marker.

On Saturday, in Acton, it was all Bruce hood as they pummeled Georgetown 10-1 behind the efforts of backstop Craig Foster.

David Iacocca, Rob Blythe, Mike Smith and David Monaghan popped in two goals each, while Adam Durski and Blythe had the solos.

It was more of the same with assists as Greg Barends, Metcalfe, Smith and Peart all had a pair while sinle helpers went to Ryan Turpin, Ryan Oudesluys, Matt Hebden, Sam Brunelle, Durski, Monaghan and Zukowski.

The team sits comfortably with a 4-0-1 record.

MIDGET

Acton precision Milwrights Midget Sabres won one and lost week in their action last week.

A 7-5 loss to Erin saw Adam Pelth, Philip McIntyre, Robert Turpin, Brian McIntyre and Derrick McIntyre score for the Midgets.

Philip, Brian and Derrick McIntyre all had two assists while Scot McDonald and Gavin Hall had single helpers.

In a 3-2 win over Brampton, Derrick McIntyre had two goals and Robert Turpin the other. Brent McGuire, Greg McMillan, Brian and Philip McIntyre added assists.
