Remembrance night planned for John Wilson

With the fall season in full swing, there are many activities on the go for students, service groups, churches and seniors.

To help keep you up to date, here's a short list of some upcoming activities and events you won't want to miss:

- Oct. 30 (today) This is your final chance to hand in your entry for the Acton BIA/Acton Tanner's Historical Halloween Hunt contest. Winners will be drawn at Power Entertainment on Halloween night at 8 pm. Come out in costume and join the fun!
- Nov. 1 Acton Sparks, Brownies, Guides and Pathfinders start selling their mint cookies — with proceeds from every box going to support local guiding programs.
- Nov. 3 Spirit Valley Revival in Rockwood. It's the rain-proof version of the Spirit Valley Experience, taking place from noon to 6 pm at various locations in the village. Tickets are $12 for adults, $5 for students aged 6-18 and children 5 and under get in free! Tickets are available at Rockmosa on event day. Call 856-9999 for more details.

• Nov. 11 Remembrance Day parade in Acton. Join local veterans at the cenotaph to remember the things we often take for granted.

• Nov. 16 Acton Santa Claus parade, beginning at 1 pm. This year's theme is "The Christmas Story."

There are many more community events happening during November. Check the coming events in the Power Classifieds, located in the House & Home real estate section.

There will be a remembrance for John Wilson, on Halloween night at 40 Meadvale Rd. in Acton. John was tragically killed as a result of two separate car accidents recently.

Halloween was one of John's favourite nights and the Halloween display has been a family tradition at his in-laws' for 10 years. His brother-in-law Jason is setting up the display to honour him and says, "He loved to see all the kids, and was faithfully involved in any kind of family get-togethers. That's why it's important for the family to continue on our traditions."

The family hopes friends and relatives will come to see the house and encourage people to bring candles and light them in memory of John.

Donations can also be made to the M.A.D.D. organization and brought to the house on Halloween. A trust fund for John and Julie's baby due in January will be set up sometime this week.

The family thanks everyone for their love and hopes to see them on Halloween night.

Julie adds: "Please don't drink and drive."
