

Bazaar season comes to Acton

It's that time of year again, when churches and community groups gather up crafts and baked goods and sell them at Christmas bazaars.

Many a bargain and treasure can be found for those patient enough to sift through all the goodies at each sale. The money raised at these events generally goes towards helping out the local organization putting it on, so everyone wins when a bazaar is a success.

Tanner photographer Eve Martin visited many local bazaars over the past couple of weeks and reported many a find—including a birdhouse shaped like a railway station she bought for herself! Eve found many other bazaar-goers and recorded their activities through her camera lens.

WHEN CRAFTS BECOME ART: Irena Kunc of Irena's Silk Flowers of R.R. #2 Acton shows her creativity in a silk topiary at the Bethel Christian Reformed Church's bazaar, held last Saturday.

HOMEPLAN OF THE WEEK!

Two storey home suits sloping lot

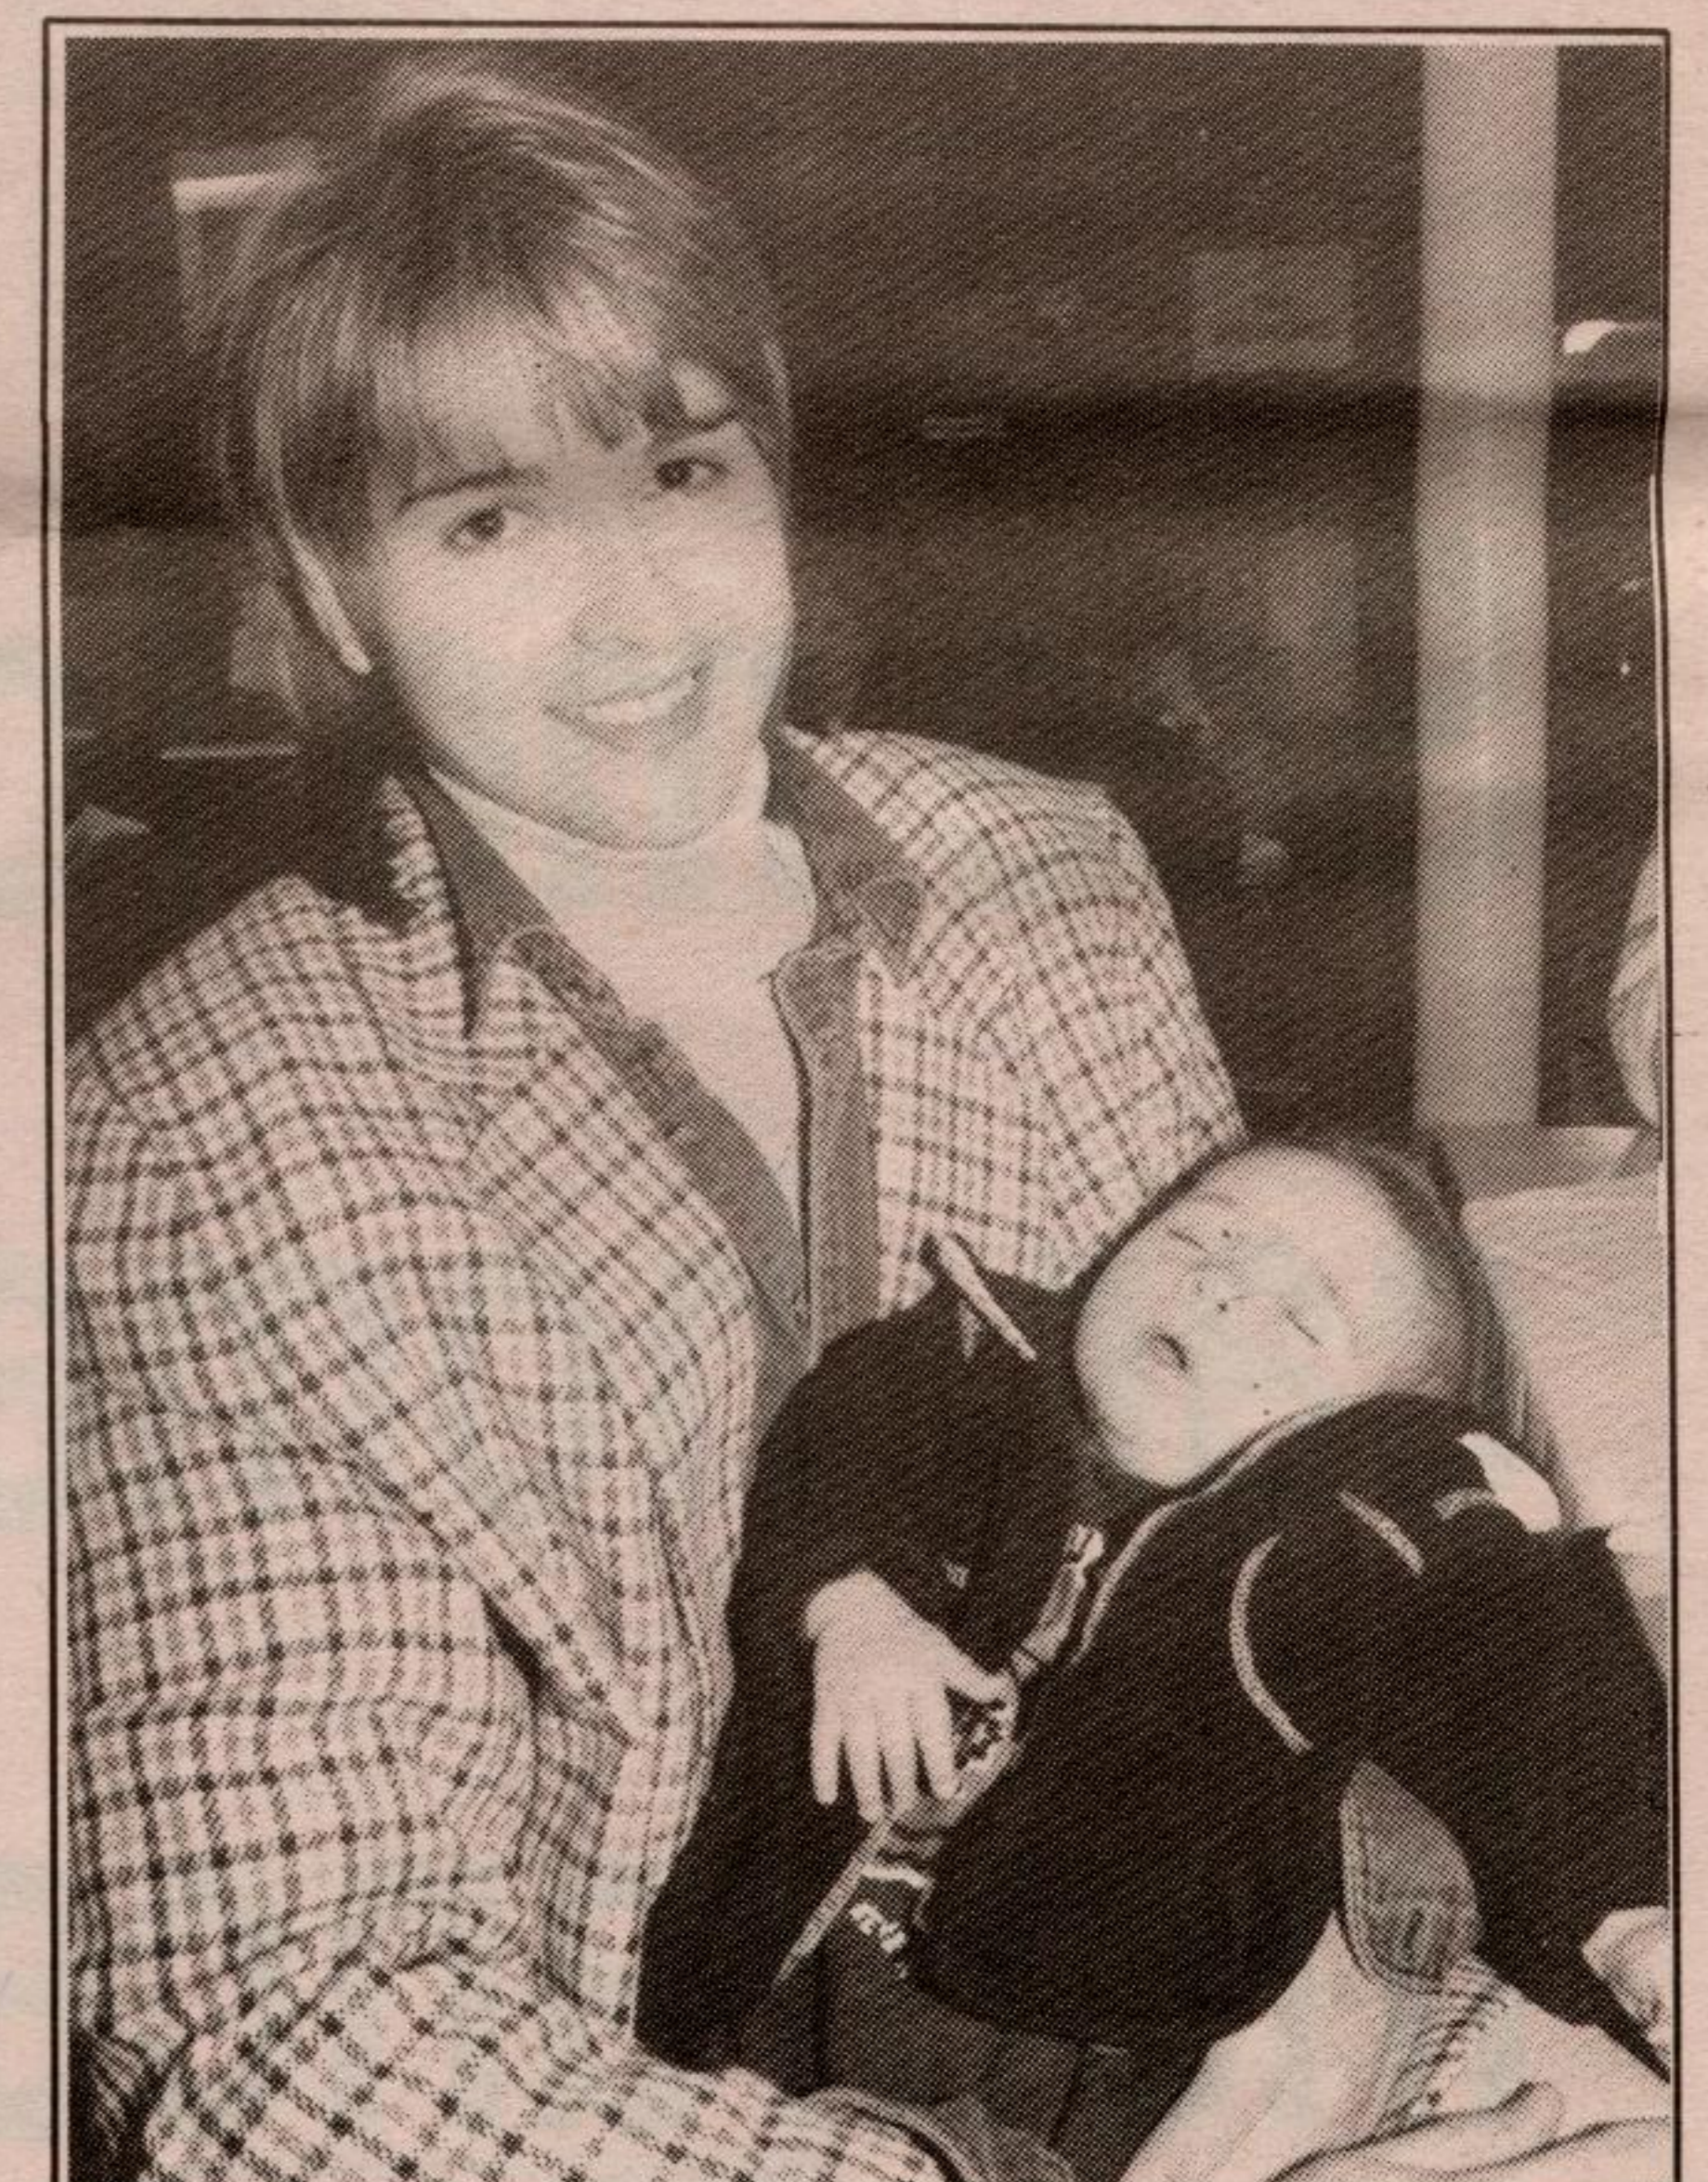

Designed to suit a lot which slopes down to the street, the garage has been dropped below the main floor level and the basement, under the den and living room, is partly exposed.

Six risers lead to the front entrance. A den, just inside the front entrance, provides an ideal location for a home office, and boasts a feature window and a vaulted ceiling. Two risers lead up to the main living area. An open plan for the living and dining room creates a spacious area for entertaining, and also features a fashionable vaulted ceiling. An efficient working layout in the kitchen offers a pantry and an open counter with a breakfast bar to service the nook. The family room is a good size providing room for a comfortable furniture arrangement.

Plans for ATO2100B may be obtained for $440 for five complete sets of working prints and $39 for each additional set. Allow $15 to cover the cost of postage and handling (add 7% GST to plan total plus postage and handling). Please make cheques, money orders, Visa or Master-Card authorizations payable to Acton Tanner Home Plan of the Week, P.O. Box 150, Acton, ON, L7J 2M3.
