

Learning how to look and feel good

BANNOCKBURN W.I.

BY EDITH MEDLAND
The ladies of Bannockburn Women's Institute visited the establishment of Body and Sole in Georgetown. We were welcomed by Cori and Thelma. Cori explained to us the importance of keeping our finger and toe nails in good condition. One of our members was treated to a manicure and a hand and arm massage by Cori.

Cori explained all the other things she does to make people look and feel their very best. She handed out samples for us to try. Many thanks were extended to her.

We then travelled to Linda Cairns' home. Linda opened the meeting with a reading called Attitude.

Today's thought was given by Isabel McDonald, a reading called Goose Story.

Gerta Potzel received the book The Home and Country

Centennial History of W.I.s of Ontario. The book costs $35 for anyone interested in having one of their own.

Business was discussed, then a delicious dessert was served by Linda.

Our next meeting will be a Christmas dinner, at Anne Hollis' home on Dec. 10.

Preschool library programs

The Acton Public Library will be accepting registration forms (available at the library) for Tales for Twos and Preschool Storytime (age 3-5) until Dec. 20. As enrolment is limited, registration is done by lottery.

The programs begin the week of Jan. 8, 1997. Tales for Twos takes place Fridays at 10:45 am, lasting 25 minutes. A caregiver is required to participate with the child. Preschool Storytime lasts 30 minutes on Wednesdays at 2 pm or Thursdays at 10:45 am. Children attend on their own, but the caregiver must stay in the building.
