Helpers deserve recognition

LAKESIDE I.O.D.E.

BY DOT NORTON

The latest meeting of the Lakeside Chapter of IODE was opened by repeating the Prayer of the Order and Flag Salute. Helen Jocque, Regent, asked for a volunteer to act as secretary.

Joyce Sprowl volunteered in the absence of secretary Dorothy Norton.

The minutes were read by Joyce and after corrections, were approved and seconded by June McHugh.

The treasurer's report was read by Elma Braid and seconded by Betty Oakes.

Joyce reported for services that IODE packed 38 Christmas hampers. The helpers were Helen Otterbein, Kathleen Harding and Rosealee Dawkins. She also reported she had wool available for anyone wishing to knit for the bale.

Joyce read a note from Halton Women's Place thanking us for the boxes of food taken to them by the Christmas Hamper Committee.

The executive meeting was held yesterday (Tuesday), too late for press time.

SMILE Theatre returns!

ASSIC ALERT

Live theatre is returning to Acton this winter when SMILE Theatre presents the second play in their series of musicals.

Me and My Bike is a story about adventures in rural Ontario in 1897, as recorded by Weekly Sun writer, W.L. Smith. It's scheduled for Feb. 19 at 7:30 pm.

SMILE Theatre is a professional theatre group based in Toronto and we are pleased to welcome them back for another show! Proceeds from ticket sales support community services provided by ASSIC.

The final play in the series, Fred and Adele, is a celebration of the early years of Fred and Adele Astaire. It will be presented on April 10, so be sure to mark these dates on your calendar.

Performances will be held at Acton High. Tickets are $7 each and are available at the ASSIC office, 19 Willow St. North.

For more information, call the office at 853-3310.
