

Cheque presented to Seniors' Centre

SENIORS REC. CENTRE

BY DOROTHY REDEKOP

Our craft group is working toward the spring sale in early April. If anyone would like to help or if you have any ideas, came and join us Monday mornings from 9:30 am to noon. If you need a ride, just contact the centre between 9 am and 4 pm at 853-5951. This pertains to any of our activities.

At our Christmas dinner, we were presented with a cheque for $3,000. This is one third of the proceeds from Ted Chudleigh's Golf Tournament. Thanks, Ted.

Our travel committee is working on some day trips. See you at the Centre!

Churches unite for yearly service

Special to The Tanner

In order to celebrate the week of Christian Unity, the Acton Ministerial Association will host its fourth annual community service, on Sunday, Jan. 26 at 10 am at the Acton Legion. The churches of Acton look forward to another great time of praise and worship of our Lord and Saviour.

This year's guest preacher is Father Mark Curtis, also known as "Canada's Singing Priest." The Hamilton-born priest combines his love of God with his love of music to proclaim the gospel. Given the Father's dynamic personality, his great sense of humour, and his genuine love for God, this should be a time of enrichment for everyone.

Since being ordained in Hamilton in 1985, Father Curtis has ministered across south-western Ontario and is currently stationed at St. John's Roman Catholic Church in Dundalk, Ontario. Father Mark has had challenges in his life - his mother's fight with cancer, the death of his young niece - and he continues to confront social injustice through both of his ministries of music and the priesthood.

His most recent album is entitled Under the Same Sun. This album's profits will be donated to the Canadian Epilepsy Research Fund, to help send epileptic children to summer camp. At last report, more than $55,000 had been raised.

Commenting on the service, Rev. Emrys Jenkins, president of the Acton Ministerial, said, "This service is for the whole community. We want everyone to come and experience the presence of God as we come together to worship Him."

"This is one of many ways the churches of Acton work together to tell others of the love of God. Much of our work goes quietly unnoticed in the community, but you can't ignore 700 people getting together for worship," continued Jenkins.

There will be a worship celebration especially designed for the children. Jamie and Katrina Holtom, from the North Bramalea United Church in Brampton, join Rev. Bob Matton of Trinity United Church to bring to life "The Great Commandment" for the children. All children are invited to participate in this unique interactive worship experience.

Nursery care is provided for the very young.

The morning promises to be filled with praise and glory to our God. You won't want to miss it. For more information, or to arrange a ride to the service, please call any Acton church.
